MAYER BROTHERS

The heaviest football player at Yale since 1900, weigher 265 pounds, the tallest man was six feet four inches, and the oldest man was twenty-six years.

Faculty reorganization of the Daily Illini was ushered in by one of the cleanest elections ever held in the history of any institution. Graft was absolutely eliminated—the students failing to cast a single vote. Another election was called.

tion of $40,000 per year for upkeep would provide for absolute necessities, but the action of Governor Stubbs in cutting the appropriation to $20,000 per year has made further progress practically impossible.

That the University of Kansas will refuse admission to probably five hundred young men and women during the next two years, was the statement made public by Prof. Olin Temple, dean of the college. The reason given for this action was based on the recent reduction made in the appropriations for the university. It was felt that the legislative appropriation of $40,000 per year for upkeep would provide for absolute necessities, but the action of Governor Stubbs in cutting the appropriation to $20,000 per year has made further progress practically impossible.

For the first time since 1908, the sophomore forces at Williams were victorious in the annual cane contest. Bright moonlight and favorable weather conditions, an effective telephone system, well organized picketing, and the complete obedience of the entire sophomore class are responsible for the result, although the freshman plans were well conceived and cleverly worked out.

MISS HENRIETTA CROSMAN
COMING TO THE OLIVER
SATURDAY, MATINEE AND NIGHT

HENRIETTA CROSMAN.

The theater patrons are to see Henrietta Crosman in her production of "Anti-Matrimony." Miss Crosman comes direct from her engagement at the Garrick Theater in New York, and the Studebaker Theater in Chicago, and brings, as she always does, her metropolitan company. "Anti-Matrimony" comes highly endorsed as a fine play. It is very unusual for it is classed as a "satirical-burlesque." It is in this play that Henrietta Crosman takes her place as the greatest English speaking actress of our time.
