APRIL 7, 1911.

This is no special edition. It is only evidence that the Nebraskan staff is endeavoring to give to the readers of the paper the best that is possible.
It shows what can be done with a large subscription list. The advertisers begin to appreciate the Nebraskan as soon as the students. However, there is room for more and we are still writing out receipts at the same old stand.

Tomorrow night the Dramatic club presents "Christopher Junior" at the Temple theater. This is a university institution and should be patronized by university students. The play is of a high standard and is one of those which represents the better side of dramatic culture. At the present time critics are bewailing the fact that the drama is degenerating because low class productions are demanded by the people. An elevation can only come about through educating the people up to an appreciation of the great plays.

This must come through the universities. It is these educational institutions which must raise the intellectual and moral standards of the country. Attend the high class productions staged by the university organizations and you will acquire this appreciation yourself.

"CHICAGO DISTRICT" POLITICS.

Yesterday's election is a striking example of what the unprincipled politician will be led to do. Machine politics are criticised, but so long as campaigning exists the machine will always be present on one side or the other. But it is a deplorable fact that any senior or junior would lower himself to the standard to enter politics in the sophomore class.

The business of the sophomore class is distinctly sophomore business. The upper classman has no right to interfere no matter what his personal desires may be, and any who does so deserve the severe censure of every man and woman in the university. It is a thing that can only be crushed by the students taking a decided stand against it, and showing little consideration for the upper classman who tries to be a demigod in lower class politics.

One of the factions became so interested, we might say obnoxious, yesterday as to threaten an earnest worker on the other side with their eternal hatred because he was supporting the opposition. This is nothing other than dirty politics of the worst order. Whenever any man will become so low as to threaten another for the simple reason that he is not on his side and declare that his opponent in class politics shall receive no advancement in school, it is time for a fumigation.

To make matters worse a self-imagined newspaper contrivance published in the Evening News a story of the election in which this particular opponent was nick-named and ridiculed far more than principled decency would permit. All may have been done to make the threat good, but it is nothing short of the worst type of yellow journalism and would almost make us wonder if the writer had a queue. If there are those who can not engage in a political campaign without being at least half decent, they should be put in a guard house till the matter is all over—perhaps a house for the correction of small children would be better.

WORK NIGHT AND DAY.

Members of Gymnastic Team Are Anxious to Make Good.

The university gymnastic team is working hard in preparation for the intercollegiate gymnastic meet to be held in Chicago soon. There seems to be no doubt now as to the men who will represent Nebraska in this event.
They will be Trump, Tobiska and Weaver. These men are working night and way to make good, but there seems to be much doubt among the team members in reference to a successful outcome.

The Nebraska men are greatly handicapped in competition with the other universities that will participate in this meet because of the lack of continued coaching. At Nebraska the gymnastic team can demand only a small portion of the time of the regular coach, and this often must be given irregularly. Other schools, however, have special coaches for this division of the athletic department and thereby develop more skillful teams.

The events in the Chicago university meet will include parallel bars, rings, horse, and tumbling exercises.
