DATE FOR DANDELION DAY CHANGED TO FRIDAY

CHANCELLOR AND DEANS WILLING TO GRANT HOLIDAY.

COMMITTEE TO BE APPOINTED

Each Worker to Bring His Own Knife and Band to Furnish Music for the Slaughter.

Dandelion day has been changed from Saturday morning, April 29, to next Friday. On that afternoon there will be a holiday and no classes will be held at the university. This action has been taken because it was thought the students would be more willing to work at such a time than on Saturday, when many have other engagements. When the proposition was finally put before the chancellor and the deans of the respective colleges they readily gave their assent.

To Appoint Committee.

Chancellor Avery will appoint a committee to make final arrangements tomorrow morning. It is intended that the students have entire charge of affairs so near as it is possible. Whatever aid can be tendered by the faculty in a collateral way will be forthcoming.

Each worker is to bring his own knife with which to cut out the yellow flowers. Means will be provided for the transportation of the weeds away from the campus. Squads will be organized and the work carried on in an orderly fashion.

Not All Work.

Work will not be the only thing on the program. It is planned to have the entire cadet band out to furnish music during the time devoted to labor. It is also probable that some good speakers will be heard and that some entertainment will be provided on the athletic field, when the "yellow peril" has been vanquished. As soon as appointed, the committee will immediately meet and make arrangements for these matters.

It is expected that Dandelion day will be a substitute for Arbor day at the university. In many of the larger institutions of the west this day is observed by improving the grounds in every possible way. Arbor day passed unnoticed at Nebraska, but Dandelion day to all intents and purposes will take its place. If the students respond as it is expected they should this is to become one of the regular holidays of the school year.

Girls Want to Work.

The students are the ones most interested in the appearance of the grounds, and there is little reason why every able bodied man in the university should not be willing to work for a couple of hours one day in the year, if such labor will be a benefit to the institution.

Some of the women say that the fairer sex should not be excluded. They are not going to be excluded by any means. On the contrary they are going to be urged to help in whatever way they can. Some have said that they can dig more dandelions than any boy, so they are going to be given the chance.

At Least a Thousand.

The grass has died out in a few large spots, which are being seeded. These will not need to be gone over and are an advantage against the dandelions. If five hundred come out, the work can be completed in a few hours. It seems that in a state university claiming an enrollment of nearly four thousand, at least one thousand could be found who would be willing to help. This, however, depends on the individual effort put forth.

Fraternities Volunteer.

While the flowers have not yet become over prominent, still the plants are numerous. In the course of a week or so the green would be lost in the yellow. It will not be a great while before the older blossoms go to seed. It is desirable that this be prevented so as to make the crop lighter next year.

Several fraternities have already volunteered to come out in a body. It is most probable that the rest will follow their example. Similar action is expected on the part of other organizations.

BAND CONCERT ON THE CAMPUS

PLAN TO AWAKEN GREATER NEBRASKA SPIRIT AMONG THE STUDENTS.

Through the efforts of some of the leading students of the university a band stand is to be built on the campus and a concert will be given by the cadet band Thursday, May 4. The purpose is to awaken a greater Nebraska spirit among the students of the institution. It is the general belief that there are not enough things to draw them together and there is not the feeling of loyalty toward the institution that there should be. Too many are absorbed in the affairs of their own narrow sphere and an endeavor will be made to make them understand the greater college life and the feeling of unity that should be prevalent in the student body. The band is preparing a good program for the first concert, and if it is a success, others will follow.

SENIOR CLASS PROGRAM.

Large Crowd Present Hears an Excellent Entertainment.

The senior class had charge of convocation yesterday morning and the program drew a large crowd. H. W. Plasters had charge of the exercises. Miss Agnes Wickstrum of the school of music gave a piano solo of rare excellence. Miss Julia Nagl gave a reading from "If I Were King," in which she portrayed several characters with great ability. A. M. Hare read a short class history, reviewing the main achievements of the class since its entrance into the university.

NOVEL MAP OF NEBRASKA.

Temple High Class in Agriculture Plants Seeds.

The class in agriculture of the Temple high school is making a novel map of Nebraska on the vacant lot south of the Temple. A plot of ground has been spaded out in the shape of the state and the counties have all been measured off exactly. Different kinds of vegetation, typical to that county, will be grown in the plots. Professor French is in charge of the work.

Y. M. C. A. FINDS WORK.

Employment Department Will Help Students This Summer.

The employment department of the Y. M. C. A. has received to date some 488 applications for employment by students who wish to work during the coming summer. This is a rather large number and more are expected before the semester closes, but work will be found for many of the applicants. Out of some 300 applications for temporary work during the year over 250 students were found places where they could help earn their way through school.

NEW CANDIDATE OUT.

O. W. Miller, Champion Wrestler, Announces Platform.

O. W. Miller, who has achieved prominence as a wrestler, has announced his candidacy for the athletic board. While this is Miller's first year in this university he has had experience in other schools for several years. He announces that he is in favor of broader baseball rules in the conference and for the general upbuilding of all athletics.

NOT A UNIVERSITY STUDENT.

Victim of Robbery Erroneously Named in the Star.

A prominent university student was much besieged with interrogations last night and this morning as the result of an error in last evening's Lincoln Daily Star. He was named as the victim of highwaymen. But such was not the case. The person held up was a younger brother attending the Lincoln high school.

CHALLENGE TO CORNHUSKERS.

Dopesters Seek Scalps of the Artists and Humorists.

The staff of the Daily Nebraskan has organized a baseball team and is out after games. This fact was made known after a short meeting held in the office yesterday. One of the unique things about it is that a certain percentage of the team must refrain from indulging in any practice whatsoever. The following challenge has been issued:

The Nebraskan baseball team hereby publicly challenges the representatives of the Cornhusker to a game to be played some time during the next two weeks.

TICKET ARE ABSOLUTELY NECESSARY IVY DAY

PURCHASE SHOULD BE MADE THIS WEEK ANYHOW.

CAN BE HAD OF COMMITTEEMEN

"The Fair Equestrienne" to Be Staged by Dramatic Club and Stunts Are Still a Mystery.

The Ivy day committee urges all students to buy their tickets for Ivy day as soon as possible as there are always some who are late. It will avoid confusion if when you see a committee member you will get your ticket. The following have tickets for sale: Senior committee—C. J. Lord, chairman; H. M. Noble, Ben Cherrington, M. O. Bates, J. E. Lawrence, Hattie Ogden, Jessie Cully, Stella Hardy and Marian Whitmore; the junior committee—E. R. Spaulding, chairman; George Leonard, E. Wohlberg, A. T. Newman, Florence Rush, Marie Smart, Mildred Bevins; sophomores—E. P. Snyder; freshmen—Carl Nagl.

Dramatic Club Play.

Twenty-five cents is the price of a ticket and admits to afternoon and evening. In the evening each class will put on a stunt. These stunts are to occupy seven minutes, and just what they will consist of is a mystery and will remain so until they are put on. If you have no ticket you will be unable to witness any of the exercises at the farm.

The Dramatic club will put on one of the best plays ever presented by them. The title is "The Fair Equestrienne." It is one of the cleverest comedies seen in late years and a good presentation is assured.

DRAMATIC CLUB ANNOUNCES

THOSE WHO RECEIVED UNANIMOUS DECISION FOR MEMBERSHIP MADE KNOWN.

The results of the Dramatic club try-outs were announced Tuesday evening. The committee of judges, composed of members of the club, had a difficult task to perform, as the try-out was one of the largest that has ever been held. The contest was held Saturday afternoon and continued for several hours. The delay in the announcement has been occasioned by the fact that the committee has found it necessary to have several sittings before it could reach a satisfactory decision.

The following received the unanimous decision of the judges: Edith Stombaugh, Harry Hough, Otto Walters, Hazel Perrin, Guy Kiddoo, Harry Coffee, Alma Plasters, Otto Sinkie, Dale Boyles, Florence Farnam, Ben Bowers.

All those who tried out are requested to see Miss Howell in U106 at once regardless of the results of the contest.

Sophomores Attention.

Sophomore baseball practice, Thursday afternoon from 3 to 5. Game with the Outlaws Friday afternoon and the freshmen Saturday morning. All men out for practice.
