A JOYFUL DEMISE.

Silently and unnoticed they have slipped away and no one seems to know whither they have departed. But it was not of their own accord. A terrible force has driven them from our midst. The campus ornament came down in all her gay plumage with delusive dreams that her fame would spread far and wide and would vie with that of Cleopatra. She might be a second Helen, so coveted she would be.

From the same realms came the fusser. And likewise this same creatures. The students are to be congratulated on their efforts.

It sure is a good idea to have such band concerts as the one planned for a week from Thursday. There are too few such gatherings at which the students may be present. This is something which can be enjoyed by all. It is things like these which bring about the growth of a wholesome college spirit. It is the great Nebraska spirit that we are striving to promote. The students should show their appreciation of the band by turning out in full force. Last month a concert was given in the Oliver theater and all present were unanimous in the declaration that the university had one of the best bands in the state. There has been improvement ever since then. The concert next week will be a good one. Come out.

OUTLAWS TAKE ANOTHER.

State Farm Lads Overcome in Five-Inning Contest 8 to 5.

The baseball team at the farm went down to defeat yesterday afternoon at the hands of the Outlaws by the score of 8 to 5. Stub's boys proved too much for their opponents at every stage of the game and found little difficulty in keeping the lead. A home run by Hascall was the feature.

Score by innings:

	R.	H.	E.
Outlaws.....	2	2	3
Farm.....	0	2	0
Batteries: Proudly, Potter and Ratcliff; Lathrop and Lewis.	1	0	—
	8	6	3
	5	4	6

Notice.

There will be a meeting of all freshmen interested in track at the gymnasium, 11 a. m. Thursday.

COMMITTEE.

Notice.

Y. W. C. A. and other girls meet at the Temple at 4 o'clock Thursday to go in a crowd to the state farm grove for violets.

ture beheld many air castles filled with beautiful women and simultaneously all fell in love with him. Guided by these fancies they descended upon us last fall and were overly conspicuous. They began operations and were successful in their own imaginations. But alas! Just as their ambitions were about to be realized the delinquent committee swept them away. Now they are gone.

As the old saying goes, "It was good riddance of bad rubbish." Where they now are is immaterial. They are gone from the university and we should all be thankful. The hand of the delinquent committee has been mighty, but the fruits of its labors are in proportionate abundance. The undesirable should be weeded out. The university is no place for those who have no aim in life except to be ornaments or fusers. Worse than a nullity, they are a detriment. Like the dandelion, they come out in full bloom—but the horrible seed and the terrible results!

Do not forget dandelion day. Every loyal student of the University of Nebraska should help dig dandelions.

A unique map of Nebraska is being constructed by the Temple high school. It is in the nature of a garden and has many commendable fea-

President Vincent of Minnesota will deliver the regular commencement address at that institution.

At Minnesota candidates for positions on the academic council nor their friends are allowed to resort to politics and are prohibited from soliciting votes.

The co-eds of Oregon university will edit the Oregon Herald in a few weeks. The girls' number will contain feature stories, society notes, cartoons and cuts of prominent people of the university.
