The Pan-Hellenic committee is making arrangements to have the returns of the city election read at the banquet tonight at the Lincoln hotel.

Miss Blanche Campbell, assistant secretary of the city Y. W. C. A., will give a talk on the juvenile court Tuesday, May 2, from 5 to 5:45, in the Y. W. C. A. rooms at the Temple.

In spite of adverse weather conditions, the senior breakfast occurred Saturday. The state farm was chosen as the spot where there was liable to be the least amount of mud, and the floor of one of the barns was found to be vastly preferable to the sodden ground. While the plans of the committee did not include these special features, they were the only feasible ones and the stunt was declared a success by the thirty who attended it.

Athletes, Attention.

Every man in the University of Nebraska who has ever done or expects to do anything in track work should don a suit and appear on the field at the state farm tomorrow afternoon. Entries should be handed to Dr. Clapp at once. Coach Field has decided to keep all the varsity men out of the meet, consequently those who have not been practicing regularly will have an even chance of winning. The medals have been ordered in silver and bronze and are said to be of the classiest design yet offered. If you have any aspirations to run, jump, vault, or throw the weights, be on hand tomorrow and make this meet a success.

C. C. McWilliams, '07, who is in the employ of the American Locomotive Works at Schenectady, Pa., was in Lincoln Friday and Saturday to attend the party and banquet of Phi Gamma Delta.
