CORNHUSKERS LINE UP AGAINST JAYHAWKERS

ALL IS IN READINESS FOR THE GREAT TRACK MEET.

SEASON TICKET WILL ADMIT

Outcome is Still an Uncertainty and Large Crowd is Expected to the Only Meet.

The warm weather of the last few days has dried out the athletic field and it is in good condition for today's meet with Kansas. As it is the only home meet this year it is expected that a big crowd will be out. The band will be present to make things more lively.

Although the dope favors Nebraska, track meets are mighty uncertain and it is by no means sure that the Cornhuskers will win. The athletic tickets are good, and all holders will be admitted without extra charge.

First place in the meet is to count five points, and second three points. Only two men from each team can start in any one event. The following is the program, giving also the present title holder of records:

DEMOCRATIC BANQUET MONDAY

POLITICAL CLUB TO HOLD ANNUAL FEED AT THE LINCOLN HOTEL.

Monday night at 6 o'clock the Democratic club banquet will be held at the Lincoln hotel. This is the annual feed of the organization and every democrat in the university has been asked to attend. One of the unusual features, and one in which it differs from other political gatherings of its kind, is that all the speakers will be students. Some of the toasts will be on national questions of serious import, while others will be of a more humorous character. The toast list includes some of the most prominent men in the university. Reciprocity, the presidential candidate situation, progressive democracy and other similar subjects will be discussed. The committee in charge announces that there has been a good ticket sale and in spite of the fact that political parties are not occupying the limelight at the present, there seems to be considerable enthusiasm among the followers of Jefferson in the university.

ANNUAL SPRING FORAY.

Sem Bot is Spending the Day at Child's Point.

At 5.20 this morning twenty-five members of Sem Bot left over the Burlington for the annual spring foray. This year the jaunt will be held at Child's Point, a splendidly wooded tract between Bellevue and Albright. The trip is in charge of Grace Ernst, '06, and her father, Hon. C. J. Ernst, assistant treasurer of the Burlington at Omaha, and for many years chairman of the board of regents. Mr. Ernst has always taken a keen interest in botanical work and often accompanies the seminar on its forays. They are expected to return tonight about 6 o'clock.

PALLADIAN PROGRAM.

Girls Furnish Interesting Entertainment for Society.

The Palladian girls put on a splendid entertainment last night, the meeting being largely attended. The program was as follows:

Instrumental solo, Grace Wattles.

MEEKER SEES FINANCIAL RUIN.

Freshman Hop Tonight—Men Have Not Made Dates.

Chairman David Meeker is almost faint from worrying over the probable financial failure of the freshman hop. The last class dance of the year to be given tonight at the Lincoln will not be well attended. At least the limited sale of tickets would so indicate. Because of the late announcement of the date and advertisement of the dance, men have been loath to make engagements at such a late hour. It is hoped, however, that enough loyal classmen will buy tickets today to make the dance pay out.

IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE.

Polygamous Mania Arouses Suspicion Against Jokers.

It pays to advertise in the Nebraskan. At least this has been learned by the Union Literary society. One day this week a notice was published to the effect that the "slate" was in the hands of a certain man. Thursday evening this man was more than busy at the telephone. Nearly every man in the society called up in the course of a few hours and wanted to escort one of the young women to the entertainment held last night. Then some of them called up again. The requests did not tally. At first the bearer of the "slate" believed that all had been seized with a polygamous mania. The truth of the whole matter was that several who were not members of the Union society were playing a joke. This was found out after much worry and excitement and no dates were wedded by telephone. It pays to advertise.

PHI BETA KAPPA KEYS GIVEN TO THIRTY-FIVE

INITIATION AND BANQUET HELD LAST NIGHT.

DEAN W. G. HASTINGS PRESIDES

Chancellor Avery, Dean Davis and A. R. Raymond Make Responses to Toasts.

Last night thirty-five were formally initiated into the Nebraska Alpha chapter of Phi Beta Kappa. The initiation was held at the home of A. J. Sawyer at the corner of Seventeenth and F streets. The house was most beautifully decorated with pink and blue, the colors of the fraternity. Besides the initiates there were many prominent members of the chapter present.

The candidates were put through the ritual early in the evening and given the insignia key. A four-course banquet was then served. Dean W. G. Hastings presided as toastmaster and toasts were responded to by Chancellor Avery and Dean Davis. A. R. Raymond made the plea for mitigation of punishment in behalf of the new members. Other prominent Phi Beta Kappas present were Dean Beasley, Judge Wilson, Professor Fossler and Miss Ensign.

There were thirty-eight elected this year, but a few were unable to be present. This was one of the largest numbers chosen at any of the universities in the country this year. Another noticeable fact is that the larger proportion of those elected were women. The opposite has been true in other institutions. The grades this year averaged higher than at any previous time. Nebraska Alpha chapter has never experienced the refusal of any of the elected to receive the honors. Such was the experience of the chapter of the fraternity at Michigan this spring, when two opposed to the principles of the organization declined their election.

WRIT OF HABEAS

LAW STUDENTS SEEK UNUSUAL METHODS TO COMPEL ATTENDANCE.

A method that is unusual to say the least has been adopted by the law students in bringing their friends to the barbecue to be held next Wednesday at Capital Beach. Fearing that the ordinary invitation would be ineffective, a complaint has been filed against them. It is hoped that all delinquents will answer. Following is a copy:

BILL OF COMPLAINT.
