

Directory of Advertisers

The following merchants and business men of Lincoln are anxious to serve the University students. By placing their advertisements in the columns of the Daily Nebraskan they show that they want your trade. And you may be sure that the merchant who is willing to make a little effort to get your patronage is the one who is going to treat you honestly and considerately in attempting to keep it. So you—as well as the Nebraskan—will profit by trading with these people:

MISS CONKLIN ON BERNHARDT.

Will Discuss French Actress and Her Play Today.

Professor Clara Conklin, head of the French department, will speak at convocation this morning on Sarah Bernhardt. She will also tell something of the play in which Madame Bernhardt is to appear, "Camille." "Camille" is a tragedy by Alexander Dumas, and has been played by Bernhardt many years. Miss Conklin is exceptionally well informed on French actors and plays and her talk will be very interesting.

Notice.

In accordance with the rule of the student publication board requiring the secretary thereof to fix the hour and the place of meeting for the election of student members of the student publication board, I have designated Thursday, May 25, at the conclusion of the all university rally, about 11:30 a. m., as the time for holding said elections. The junior class will meet in music hall in the Temple, the sophomore class in Memorial hall, the freshman class in the Temple theater.

A. A. REED,

144-6t

Secretary.

The Y. M. C. A. committeemen's feed which was scheduled for tonight at 6 o'clock has been called off. It is probable that no more committee dinners will be held during this college year.
