and has completed the state examination with grades to his credit high enough for a first-grade "with-credit" certificate. He attended the rural schools in Iowa, but has taken the full four-year high school course in Madison.

Elmer K. Nelson, the representative of the northwestern district is a senior in the Sidney high school. He formerly attended the Model high school of the Greeley, Colo., normal, and also the Riverside, Colo., high school. He is a capable orator as well as debater, having won first place in both the local and the district oratorical contests. As a student his rank is high.

Junius Graham Oldham, son of Judge and Mrs. W. D. Oldham, is a junior in the Kearney high school. His father, a prominent lawyer, formerly a member of the Nebraska supreme court, is a skilled public speaker and debater, and his sister, Isabel Oldham, won second honors in the first state championship contest of the debating league in 1908. This is his first year in debate. He is a high-rank student.

John T. O'Connell of Atkinson, representative of the northern district, is a senior in the Atkinson high school. He was on Atkinson's team last year. In this year's debates with O'Neill and Valentine Mr. O'Connell won first place. He stands well toward the head of his class.

William W. Wertz of Trenton will represent the southwestern district. He was graduated from the eleventh-grade course two years ago and re-entered school this year to take normal training work and to finish preparation for college. Mr. Wertz has won first honors of his class at both graduations.
