"Phil" is no longer with us.

After years of quiet efficient services to the students of old Nebraska, the lure of the shining dollar has called him out into the business world, and he will leave in a very few days to take up a position in Chicago. His resignation early in the sum-

Don't forget where you live.

Don't forget that every one was a freshman once—maybe twice.

Don't be in a hurry to meet Prof. Engberg.

Don't look down on your professors.

Don't subscribe for the "Rag." It is customary to borrow it.

Don't stick your gum under your chair. Others have not been warned, and you might make a mistake in retrieving it.

Don't be too anxious to join the "sluffers." Keep away from the crowd, if it does seem lonesome. It pays.

Don't forget that you have just joined the gang that keeps boosting for the best, biggest, brightest, bulkiest college that you have ever attended. Don't forget that in a year or two you will be expected to do a lot of boosting. Learn early; put your heart into it. Start NOW.

All but four of Princeton's old squad are back and it looks like a good year for the tigers on the gridiron.

The senior council at Syracuse have appointed a vigilance committee to urge men in that university to go out for the athletic teams.

The Boulder-Denver football controversy waxes hotter and hotter. Oh, if only the energy that is wasted in futile contention in athletic contromer was unknown to most of the older students, and it was with no little shock, that those who returned learned of his withdrawal from the duties of registrar.

The "Rag" acknowledges its debt for many favors done it in years past, and expresses its best wishes for the future of P. J. Harrison.

versies could be used to boost our college teams, what battles royal there would be!

The Kansas football season was inaugurated with forty-five men out for practice. It will take the pick of more than forty-five to regain what they lost to us last season.

Six of Denver's All-Colorado men are back in the football squad, and their prospects are good for a better team than that which met defeat at the Cornhuskers' hands last year.

Announcement

THE DAILY NEBRASKAN office has been so arranged this summer that it will be handy for all students. Our new door just south of the entrance of the Administration building will be open to all students and we desire to have you use it. Make the "Rag" office your meeting place and when in need of a telephone remember that ours are ready for your use at any time. ¶ When you have some news that will be of interest to other students or an announcement that you desire printed, drop in and hand it to us.

FLODEEN & BRETHOUWER, 129 So. 11th Street
LINCOLN, NEBRASKA

Every man who cares anything at all about his personal appearance knows that only a first-class merchant tailor can furnish the sort of clothes that will give him that look of distinction that a well-groomed and well dressed man shows. At 129 So. 11th Street the firm of Flodeen & Brethouwer maintains a large show window that is always filled with a line of goods that are equal to the display of any tailoring establishment to be found in the west. The prices quoted on these goods attract attention, and the workmanship and fit is all that could be desired. Here you can buy tailor-made good at hand-me-down prices.
