A Big "Wad" Disappears.

Sioux Falls, S. D.—It has become known that a $10,000 package of currency mysteriously disappeared from the Sioux Falls postoffice Tuesday, and has not yet been discovered. No arrests have been made in connection with the disappearance of the money. The package was consigned to the Sioux Falls savings bank and arrived at the postoffice. It was regularly receipted for and placed in the vault. When a messenger from the bank called at the postoffice for the package it had disappeared from the vault.

Twelve women were stricken with ptomaine poisoning after eating pressed chicken at a church supper at Magnolia, Ia.

We're playing a little tune on clothes in which the dominant note is value.

There are other notes, too, such as style, fabric and fit.

But first, last and all the time, whether you pay $15 or $40, you may be sure of getting dollar for dollar value.

Stylish fall Kensingtons that fit—they radiate smartness.
