THE ROOTING SQUAD.

"Bob" Hawley has issued a call for rooters.

Just how much attention will be paid to it by those whom he wishes to get out, is a matter for question.

But there is no doubt whatever as to the number that should pay it respect. He should have to eliminate at least five hundred good leather lunged Cornhuskers before organizing his proposed gang of 100.

Rooting is an important part of college athletics. It is also the only sport in which a majority can participate. It is good exercise for the lungs, heart, hands and feet, and fine for that "Nebraska Spirit."

It is also an art. Rooters need not be born, perhaps, but the great rooters of history are said to have been hearty squallers from childhood's happy hour. A rooter's mind must be absolutely free from restraint, and self-consciousness. He must be a person who can don scarlet trousers, a white sweater, a floppy hat and a megaphone as naturally as a paper collar. He must possess sufficient strength of mind to forget the girl with the fur-trimmed toque, and concentrate his entire aura upon the fact that Ne-Bras-Ki is the one best and only absolutely safe speculation on 'change. Such men are rather hard to find, but there are plenty of them about. They owe it to themselves to get out and let their lights shine abroad in the land. Nebraska needs good rooting just as much as good booting, on the football field.

Come out from behind that shrubbery!

We know you!

Dr. Maxey—"Mr. Noone, read your notes on the case."

Joe Noone—(Deep silence, followed by prolonged rustling of papers.)

Dr. Maxey—"Hurry up or it will be afternoon."

HELP! HELP!

WILL HAVE DISCIPLINE.

Captain Yates Will Try to Raise Standard—Butts Liked Cadets.

Commandant Yates gave a short talk to the officers of the regiment Tuesday evening in which he outlined his plans for the coming year. A stricter military discipline will be required of the cadets this year than in previous years. The new U. S. Army drill regulations will be put into effect at once.

He reminded the officers that only through hard work and with the hearty co-operation of the officers and cadets could Nebraska take its place in the front rank of schools having military training.

Captain Yates concluded his talk by thanking the men for their work in maintaining order along the line of march during the Taft parade.

Major Archibald W. Butts, the President's aide, complimented the Commandant highly on the soldierly appearance of the cadets.

MONAHAN VISITS CAMPUS.

Member of U. S. Bureau of Education Inspects Nebraska.

Mr. A. C. Monahan of the U. S. Bureau of Education, visited the University yesterday. He is making a tour of a number of states, investigating the work in agricultural education. Preceding his coming here, he visited the universities of Missouri and Iowa, and he goes from here to Kansas and Oklahoma.

In speaking of his trip, he expressed himself as much pleased with what he had seen in the way of agricultural education, and said that there had been an increase this fall in the agricultural colleges of the country of 35 per cent in attendance. He visited at the campus yesterday morning, especially the Library, Physics and Chemistry laboratories.

NOTICE.

The Committee on Student Organizations desires to call the attention of all students to Senate Rule 22c, published on page 42 of the General Catalog, which reads:

"All University functions, including social gatherings of departmental clubs, shall be held on Friday and Saturday evenings.

"All meetings of the following named University clubs and organizations holding later than 7:30 p. m., shall occur on Friday and Saturday evenings except by special permission of the Committee on Student Organizations:

"Agricultural Club, Botanical Seminar, Chemistry Club, Dramatic Club, Electrical Engineering Society, English Club, Engineering Society, Entomological Society, Forestry Club, German Club, Germanistische Gesellschaft, Komensky Club, Latin Club, Mechanical Engineering Society, Medical Society, Pharmaceutical Society, Platform Club, Students' Debating Club, Tegner Society."

The University Date Book is kept in the office of Miss Ensign, Adviser to Women, and all societies are requested to secure the reservations of dates as soon as they can be determined upon.
