VARSITY SCRUBS IN SCRIMMAGE PRACTICE

Winding up the afternoon with an eighteen to six score on the Scrubs, the Cornhuskers concluded the best day's practice they have done up to date Wednesday evening.

Coach Stiehm varied the lineup continually, trying out all his men, and drilled the squad time and time again through the plays that will be used in the game today and Saturday. Each move of each play was gone over in careful detail and explained by the coach, and the test of the cooking was tried as is always the case on dog—the Scrubs.

Team Work Better.

The team work of the Varsity eleven appeared much better, both in ginger and in precision, Wednesday, than heretofore.

Plays went off in good shape, and it really begins to look like a football eleven. Coach Stiehm said not a word as to how practice was going, but all through the day's workout, his "good work" call was to be heard oftener than on former days.

No Eleven Chosen Yet.

No announcement of any regular eleven men will be made either today or Saturday until just a few moments before the team files onto the field. The team will, of course, consist of the regular players, but who will play the positions will not be known until the team line up on the field. In both today's and Saturday's games the coach plans to play as many men on the positions as possible and give them a trial.

AMES LINES UP STRONG.

Appears To Be in Best Shape for Many Years.

Ames is in a position to give any team in the Missouri Valley conference a run for the supremacy this year. They have a large number of year's team back on the field, heavier, faster and stronger than ever before.

Up to date the exact lineup is an unknown quantity. They have Busy Hart, captain; Chappell, Ringheim and Rutledge, all of whom are playing their last year with the Ames aggregation. Juhl, Hunt, McDonald and Vincent are also men out of the Varsity last year. Weyrach and Burge, former Iowa men, are also on the field and are making some of the old men work hard to hold their jobs. Brennan is laid up with a broken shoulder and Buck Hurst, who played quarter last year, is out of the game for a while, nursing the remnants of an appendix.

Williams, the coach, is throwing in a bunch of shift and trick plays, just to make things hard.

Syracuse Takes Up Rowing.

The University of Syracuse has appropriated a section of the Erie canal for fall rowing practice in 1912. They also announce that a race is to be scheduled with either Princeton or Yale. The Junior crew will be entered in the American Henley, this year.

Missouri Playing Good Ball.

Missouri totaled 130 yards in line plunges alone in defeating William Jewell college. Hackney of the Tigers made three field goals besides two twenty-yard end runs.

Tennis Girls to Meet.

The girls' tennis club will meet in Nebraska hall at 5 o'clock Friday. All members should be present.

FRESHMAN MEET VARSITY ON NEBRASKA FIELD TODAY

Get out all your glad rags and your old rooting flags for today the Cornhuskers meet the Freshmen in the second practice game of the year.

The Freshmen squad is after revenge for the walloping the Varsity handed it last Saturday. Coach Rathbone has been working hard with his Freshmen and it will be a game worth seeing.

Now show up at Nebraska Field like a loyal Nebraskan, and get some true Cornhusker spirit, at least. Admission is free. Come out and see the field and the new grandstand, root either for the Varsity or the Freshmen, see how finely organized the Nebraska eleven is, even at this stage.

The lineup of the two teams will be the same as the one of last Saturday but Coach Rathbone declares that his speedy little Freshmen squad didn't have a fair chance against the heavier Varsity bunch in the mud of the first game.

Get out and see the game. This afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at Nebraska Field.

All students should visit the "College Inn Barber Shop at 127 North 12th. S. L. Chaplin, Prop.

SHINGUARDS

Tiresome to do this, but—"ABOUT THAT SEASON TICKET?"

Drake University has taken up soccer. "Sock 'em."

Kansas is building a new grandstand. "We'll be there, Jayhawkers, for that game at Lawrence."

We'll meet you at Nebraska Field this afternoon. Yes, at 3:30 o'clock. And be there, if you come in an ambulance.

DIED—U. Knocker. We present our regrets, but it's for the community's good. We hate to express in public our opinion of the guy.

Did you notice that Kansas story? BUT, did you ever see the year that Kansas did not come across with a team that was better than good?

Bob Hawley's bunch of yelling Comanche rooters, meets on the campus at noon. The rest of us leave on a morning train. But you've got the right spirit, you yellers. We're for you.

Jay Hunt, who played on the Freshmen team here two years ago, is trying out for quarter with the Kansas Aggies, and it looks as if he will be the man who will appear here a week from Saturday with the Manhattan squad. Pretty tough to educate 'em and then have to wallop 'em.

There's mighty few business men and women in Nebraska from the way those season tickets sell. Six football games, or six of any kind of athletic contests cost you $3.00. So does the season ticket to twenty-four events. Want us to draw a diagram of it?

BAKER'S CAFE, "the best in the west." Reasons why. Best meats, best coffee, moderate prices. Best orchestra every evening.

AHRENS OF KANSAS LEAVES FOR BELLVILLE

Ahrens, the big University of Kansas football man, who was expected to fill the center position again this year for the Jayhawkers, has left school for his home in Belleville, Kansas, and declares he will not return.

Ahrens left a week ago Monday, but at first it was thought to be only a temporary loss. Word from the husky lineman states that there will be another center at Kansas this year.

Davidson, a promising man, is now passing the ball for the Kansas practice, but the loss of Ahrens will mean a big hole in the Kansas line. Davidson had been considered as a possible man at center and the coach planned to shift Ahrens to guard or tackle, where he would be more useful.

Ammons and Brownlee are practically sure of the ends, and Baird will play his old guard.

Heil at Quarter.

Heil, last year's quarter for the Jayhawkers, will be in his old place and the two Woodbury brothers have been chosen as the two halfbacks. Stuewe, fullback on the Freshmen team of last year at Kansas, is reported to be the find of the season at that school and will probably make the place. Wilson and Delany, on account of their kicking ability, will make the squad.
