

WILL PICK DEBATE SQUAD.

Professors Will Judge Forensic Aspirants Saturday.

Preliminaries to select the debating squad from which Nebraska's teams will be selected for the Central Debating League contests with Iowa, Minnesota, Illinois and Wisconsin, will be held in Memorial hall Saturday morning, beginning at 8:45 o'clock.

Almost twenty-five aspirants for forensic honors will participate, thereby assuring a strong intercollegiate debate seminary.

Admission to the University public will be free.

The question for debate will be, "Resolved, That the United States should adopt a policy of shipping subsidies."

The judges will be Dr. G. E. Le Rossignol, head of the department of political economy and commerce, Dr. Edwin Maxey, professor of public law and diplomacy, and Dr. George O. Virtue, professor of political economy and commerce.
