TUESDAY, OCTOBER 10, 1911.

THE REASON.

We do not print this issue of the "Rag" in this color because we like it; it is because we have to. Red is a startling color. It is also the color of good red blood that ought Nebraskans who haven't bought season tickets yet are evidently waiting to be shown before saying goodbye to their money, while Missourians, who supposedly have to be shown, have this time pinned their faith in advance to the athletics of the almanac and have cut loose from real cash as a guarantee of their college spirit.

The College Inn Barber Shop. Student trade solicited. S. L. Chaplin & Co. 127 N. 12th.

HOW LONG?

Old Scout (who takes the Rag)—Let's go to the game today, Old Timer. Old Timer (who doesn't)—What game is that?

Old Scout—The Engineers did a good piece of political work the other day, didn't they? Old Timer—What was that?

Old Scout—It's fortunate that Jerry came back, isn't it? Old Timer—Jerry who?

Old Scout—Have you signed up for the tennis tournament yet? Old Timer (who likes to play)—No. I haven't heard when they will open the lists.

Old Scout (disgusted)—Say, man, when will you learn that the way to know what's going on is to take the Rag?

DAVID MEEKER IMPROVES.

Word was received Monday that David Meeker, a prominent sophomore who has been in the hospital for the to begin to flow in some rather flacid veins among the student body of this college.

We print this number in red to attract attention. To attract the attention of the three thousand who were NOT in a position to SEE the wonderful feat performed on Nebraska Field October 7, 1911.

We want everybody to know that we have a real football team, a remarkable football team, and that we are GOING TO BEAT MINNESOTA.

What of the Glee Club?

Nothing has been heard about the Glee club this year. Nobody seems to be pushing the idea, although quite a few have announced their intention of joining if such a club should be formed. Someone should get busy and rush it.

College is not complete without a Glee club.

MISSOURIANS ARE SHOWN.

With one thousand season athletic tickets sold, the University of Missouri can well claim to have admirable college spirit among its students. The last two weeks, is steadily improving. Dr. Welch, who is attending him, says that he probably will be out in the next three or four weeks, if no complications requiring an operation appear.

Students' special pictures at 75c and $1.75 per dozen, are the classy dope. Blazek's Studio, 1306 O.

GOOD JOB IS OPEN.

Dean E. A. Burnett of the College of Agriculture, is in receipt of a letter offering a $1,350 job as teacher of agriculture to some University of Nebraska graduate of that department. Dean Burnett says he has no one in mind at present, but would be glad to receive applications from eligible alumni.

BLACK MASK ORGANIZES.

The Black Masks formally organize this morning at 11 o'clock, in Miss Ensign's room, under the direction of Breta Bills. The girls are already laying enthusiastic plans for their special work of college spirit and the general oversight of underclass girls.
