

FOUR FRESHMEN OUT

HANSEN, McFARLAND, FINLEY AND DERRY WANT THE PRESIDENCY.

Candidates for the job of president of the Freshman class have arisen as if by magic in the past week, two more searchers for the plum having announced themselves Monday, making a total of four men running. The new men are Guy C. Derry of Butte, Nebraska, and Robert McFarland, of Lincoln.

Robert Finley, the first of the four on the field, is still in the running, and Elmer Hansen of Lincoln, another of the candidates, who started last week, is also a contender.

McFarland graduated from Lincoln High school in 1911, was one time president of his class and was also president of the Philologist debating society. McFarland is not a frat man and is registered in the Arts college.

Derry was president of the high school debating club at Butte, and after graduating from there attended Wayne Normal, where he was yelmaster. He is a six year law student and does not belong to a frat.

Although the president's chair looks good to four candidates, no one seems to care for the other places on the tickets. Active campaigning will begin this week.

FRESHMAN LAWS MOVE

CROWDED FROM THIRD FLOOR OF UNIVERSITY HALL TO SECOND.

No longer will the freshman law students have to divide their attention between Dr. Maxey's humoresque lectures and the safest way of taking notes while perched on a radiator, window sill or three-legged chair. The days are past when they must sing "Hall, hall, the gang's all here," in shifts, for want of sufficient fresh air and ventilation to supply the lungs of eighty men at once. Never again need they sit in each other's laps or fight for standing room in order to be in the room when Judge Hastings calls the roll.

After two weeks of such interesting diversion, the embryonic lawyers are to move into more commodious quarters. The authorities have discovered that eighty-five men cannot be properly seated in a room with a capacity of only sixty-seven, and so, after much study, have arranged to hold the freshman law classes in a larger room on the second floor of University hall, while the classes now meeting there will take possession of the third floor law room.

PHARES A CANDIDATE.

Would Lead Senior Laws First Semester.

R. E. Phares has announced his candidacy for president of the senior law class.

Phares graduated from Red Cloud high school in 1909, and has been in attendance at the University ever since.

He is popular with his classmates, and has made a reputation as a student and good fellow, too.

NOTICE.

The following classes in Rhetoric One, sections 1, 2, 9 and 11, Chemistry 7, and American History 29, section 1, reciting at ten o'clock, will hereafter recite in U 304. Section 4 of Rhetoric 1, will be transferred to U 204.

Lawyers at Smoker.

The first Phi Delta Phi smoker has been announced for Wednesday evening, October 11, at the Delta Tau Delta house, Fourteenth and R streets.

FRESHMEN WELL TREATED

NEW STUDENTS HAVE EASY TIME COMPARED TO FRESHMEN ELSEWHERE.

Freshmen at Nebraska have an easy time of it, compared with beginners at some other big universities. Many freak rules are enforced elsewhere, especially in the east, which the Nebraska freshman never is bothered with. By way of comfort to any local first year men who feel downtrodden by the upper classmen, the following rules for Wisconsin freshmen are cited:

No Freshmen shall smoke upon any part of the University grounds, except in the Wisconsin Union, until after May 1st.

No Freshman shall carry a cane or walking stick at any time unless such cane or stick is necessary because of injuries making it impossible for him to walk without the aid of such cane or stick.

Can't Wear Derbies.

No Freshman shall wear any derby or stiff hat whatever during the year until May 1st, save only upon "prom night." Between registration day and November 1st and between Easter and commencement, every Freshman must wear the prescribed green cap with cardinal button.

No Freshman or Sophomore shall, under any circumstances whatever, sit upon the fence in front of the gym. No Freshman shall sit or loiter upon the steps of the library at any time.

Violation of the above rules will no longer be punished by hazing, but by action of the Student Court.

MYSTIC MUGS BANQUET

LEGAL LIGHTS FOREGATHER AND FEED AT LOCAL HOTEL.

The Mystic Mugs will hold the first banquet of the year this evening at the Lincoln hotel. The Mugs are senior law students, organized for the purpose of going more deeply into legal questions than the ordinary study of the class room.

At the banquet this evening a program will be given in accordance with the established custom of the organization, as follows: Recall of State Judges, Dale Boyles; Law and Practice, R. M. Switzer; Raw Recruits on Mystic Mugs, Sam R. Buck; Value of Legal Education in the Real Estate Business, J. M. Swenson; Plans of Mystic Mugs for 1911, J. H. Bloedorn.

The Mugs hold these little educational dinners every three weeks during the college year.

HERE AND THERE.

Clara Hermanson, Tri-Delta, of Kearney, came to Lincoln Saturday for the Kearney game.

W. H. Snell, '73, who belonged to the first graduating class of the University, is visiting Judge Letton of this city.

Sigma Chi will entertain at an informal dancing party on Friday, October 13th.

Alice McCollough, who is teaching in Fremont, spent Sunday at the Kappa Alpha Theta house.

The freshmen bunch is too small to be squeezed into the Junior's old quarters and they are compelled, therefore to trade with the Rhetoric One classes.

Helen Whelpley, ex 1914, who is teaching at Fremont, was a Sunday visitor at the Delta Gamma house.

GET MONEY BACK.

Cadets who attended camp last June and who paid the fees, can get a refund of $1.50 by applying to Captain Halsey E. Yates, commandant.
