HAWLEY'S ROOTING SECTION TO ROOT

Hawley's Howlers will hold the first official session of the year at the Nebraska-Kansas Aggies game on Nebraska field this afternoon. The official scarlet and cream rooters' hats have been ordered and it is thought will arrive in time to be purchased and given out on the bleachers. A section sufficient to accommodate 250 men has been roped off and only those equipped with colors and megaphones will be considered elected to that portion of the bleachers. Manager Eager announced yesterday morning that beginning with Tuesday, the tickets for the Missouri game would be on sale, and that after today's game the major portion of both grandstand and bleachers will be reserved.

GIRLS' SQUAD OUT

CALL MADE FOR UNIVERSITY CO-EDS TO FILL ROOTING SECTION.

The Girls' Squad is going to help put another feather in Nebraska's cap today. There will be even a larger crowd out than the excellent representation at the Kearney game.

The Black Masks have completed their many plans for the effective work to be done by the squad, and tomorrow will show that the "girls' section" is the most attractive spot on the field.

Every girl in school is wanted. Every girl is needed, who has the stuff of which college spirit is made and whose heart is with her Alma Mater.

It is not too late to get season tickets. They will be on sale on the campus by the Black Masks for one hour before the game. It should be understood that these tickets secure you the best reserved seat in the grandstand for 25c less than any other seat.

M'MILLAN SHOWS UP

JOINS MICHIGAN CAMP AND IS IN FOR THE WHOLE SEASON OF BIG GAMES.

Yost is smiling again. The return of Shorty McMillan was the big feature of the week in the Wolverine camp, for McMillan was the star quarterback for Michigan last year, and is entering the game this year but five or ten pounds heavier than at the close of last season.

McMillan's return was a surprise to most of the Michigan cohorts, for his denials of coming back had been strong. However, he could not resist the genial coach's famous smile and came back to get in the big games of this year.

BAKER'S CAFE, "the best in the west." Reasons why. Best meats, best coffee, moderate prices. Best orchestra every evening.

Kansas Aggies Ready.

"Although we are going up against the strongest team in the valley next Saturday, our men will fight all the more hard and a good game is to be expected."—Students' Herald, Kansas State Agricultural School.

Acacias Entertain.

Acacia gives a house party this evening at the house.

CAPTAIN OF MISSOURI OUT WITH BROKEN ARM

Hackney, Missouri's great kicking captain, is out of the game this year.

He may get in once or twice for a kick at the end of the season, but it is very doubtful. Monday morning, Hackney was operated on, and a silver wire connection was made between shoulder and arm, until the ligaments shall be strong enough to support the arm.

T. E. D. Hackney will continue to be captain of Missouri's 1911 football team. Another will be selected to do the field work, but as yet who it will be is unknown.

The loss of Hackney leaves a hole in Missouri's backfield. Now it will be necessary to develop a kicker. Knobel has been selected to take quarter and will make a good man in time, but as yet the work is new.

Yost Gives Quiz Hour.

Coach Yost of Michigan, is giving a half hour's quiz every evening after dinner at the training table in place of a nightly signal practice.

Team Gets a Bid.

The Cornhuskers have been invited to witness the "Three Twins" at the Bijou theater in Minneapolis, the night after the big game.
