CORNHUSKER WARRIORS HOLD SECRET PRACTICE

MANY NEW AND PUZZLING PLAYS
BEING DEVELOPED.

NEBRASKANS DETERMINED ON VICTORY

Stiehm is Training Men in Team Work
—Potter May Play—Team
Spirit Good.

Preparing for their contest with the husky Minnesota team next Saturday, the Cornhuskers held secret practice on Nebraska Field Tuesday afternoon, developing plays to astonish the Gopher aggregation and to strengthen the work of the Nebraska team.

Coach Stiehm is training his men in team work rather than individual drill this week, the games of last Saturday and the week previous having shown that there are plenty of individual stars on the Cornhuskers.

Line Strengthened.

The line has braced up greatly in the two days of this week, that the eleven has practiced, must time being spent in working out varied methods of attack on defense play. Minnesota's backs will do well to open any holes in the Cornhusker stone wall.

The true "do or die" spirit has been inculcated into the Nebraska team this year, and they are going up to Minneapolis with a firm belief that they will return with the Gopher's scalp. That means more than half the battle in this case, for the Cornhuskers are a better team this year than Minnesota, and with the spirit that they can win imbued in them, they will show the Gophers the hottest game in years.

Squad Not Picked.

No selection of players has been made as to what players will make up the squad to Minneapolis, but it will include all the players who have made up the team in the two games played, twenty men being taken.

Potter is the only man on the squad who is not in the finest of condition, he having wrenched his shoulder slightly in diving for a ball last Saturday. Potter will probably be able to play in the Minnesota game, however.

RECEPTION FOR FRESHMEN

Y. M. C. A. TO HELP MEN OF FIRST
YEAR CLASS TO BECOME ACQUAINTED.

The first big social gathering of the year for the men of the freshman class will be held Saturday evening in Memorial hall. The affair will be in the nature of a reception to the men of the newly organized class by the University Y. M. C. A.

A committee of freshmen to cooperate with the Y. M. C. A. social committee will be appointed by President Robert McFarland of the class. A program of entertainment will be arranged and a good time assured. It is announced for 8 o'clock.

The purpose of the social is to acquaint the new classmen more thoroughly with one another and thereby assist them in their organization.

SEEIN' THEM OFF

Of course we are all going to see them off.—We have just got to do it.

And then we want to do it, too.

It wouldn't be like old times if we didn't haul them down to the depot and cheer them.

We'll yell and sing and tell the boys how much we wish we could go along and then send a score of good husky rooters along to help the band.

Anyway we are all sure going to the big Rally Thursday morning in Memorial hall. Coach Stiehm and all the boys will be there.

WE MUST BEAT MINNESOTA!

TRI-DELTS LOSE MONEY.

"Robbers, murder, thieves, somebody help." This and other screams were not heard at the Delta Delta Delta robbery, for all of the girls were away from home. No one knows just how it happened or who got into the house, but about a hundred dollars worth of jewels and money was taken from the house.

It happened sometime between the hours of four and six o'clock in the afternoon. It was in the broad daylight, too. But that did not keep his highness, the boogy man from picking up a lot of stuff. No traces of the man or men were to be found.

M'FARLAND ELECTED FRESHMAN PRESIDENT

ENTERING CLASS CHOOSES LIN-COLN MAN PRESIDENT.

OLYMPICS COMMITTEE APPOINTMENTS

First Ballot Gave McFarland Lead
Over Others and He Won on Second Ballot.

Robert McFarland of Lincoln, was elected president of the Freshman class at yesterday's meeting by a majority of sixty-two votes over H. C. Gellatly, the next highest candidate. The other candidates were Robert Finley and Guy C. Derry.

An attempt to decide the election by a plurality instead of a majority vote was voted down. As a result of the class contest two ballots were necessary.

McFarland was nominated by Cy Bryan also of Lincoln.

Bryan made a neat little speech in which he painted in eloquent terms the qualifications of his candidate.

First Ballot Futile.

On the first ballot the vote was: McFarland 195, Gellatly 110, Finley 85, Derry 2.

On the second ballot only the highest were considered, and the result was: McFarland 205, Gellatly 143.

Immediately after the election, President McFarland announced the appointment of the following class committee on Olympics: J. Calhoun, chairman; Sam Waugh, Roy Brian, Robert Finley, George Dutton, R. Arsenon and R. Becker.

President Radcliffe of the junior class presided, and the meeting went off smoothly in spite of the warmth of the contest and the intense excitement which prevailed at times.

LE ROSSIGNOL AT CONVOCATION

ECONOMICS PROFESSOR DIS-CUSSES PHASES OF NEW ZEALAND LIFE.

Prof. G. E. Le Rossignol spoke at convocation yesterday morning on "Life in New Zealand." He compared conditions between the British Island in the outh Seas and America. The majority of the settlers in New Zealand were born in the British Isles and they retain many of the customs of their old home. Professor Le Rossignol said that while the island is a beautiful place to visit still it does not afford as many opportunities for ambitious young men as our own country.

Chancellor Avery Leaves

Chancellor Avery left last night for St. Paul and Minneapolis to attend a convention. No interview could be arranged before he left the city, so no statements were made as to whether he would remain for the Minnesota game on Saturday.

Former Nebraskan Enroute.

Mrs. Shellhorn, formerly Lodema Gould of the University, passed through the city last week on her way to her home in Los Angeles.
