ALUMNI IN POLITICS.
 The editor is pleased to note in these columns the candidacy of three of Nebraska's alumni for important public position.
 Mr. Thomas L. Hall, Mr. Sterling F. Mutz, and Mr. Phillip A. Sommerlad are candidates respectively for the state railway commission, district judge, and county treasurer of Lancaster county.
 Other things being equal, these men should have the support of every Nebraska man, regardless of party prejudices.

LE ROSSIGNOL SPEAKS.
 Professor Le Rossignol of the department of economics addressed the debate squad Tuesday evening on the economic phase of the ship subsidy question.

 "You're right in my way."
 "Is your hat gone too?"
 "He's been playing all season."
 "I could show those dubs a little interference."
 "I'll tell you who's the boy."
 "Nice work Sylvie."
 "Holy Moses, hold them."
 "Doin' fakes when they oughtenter."
 "Hire a hall."
 "There goes you're dollar." After the announcement of the Giants' victory.
 "Watch that shoestrings play."
 "We got to make Forty."
 "Oh, well, of course they're only a scrub team."
