CORNHUSKERS DEPART AFTER GREAT OVATION

LEAVE VIA OMAHA FOR BIG GAME AT MINNEAPOLIS WITH GOPHERS.

2,500 STUDENTS CHEER AT DEPOT

Men and Co-Eds Gather in Throngs to Speed Team On Its Way—
Arrive This Morning.

Two thousand five hundred cheering and confident students witnessed the departure of the Cornhusker football warriors for Minneapolis last night.

At five o'clock the crowd began to gather on the campus to the music of the Uni band, and by 5.15 fully a thousand were on hand. For a few moments cheers and snake dances were the order of the day, while a big van decorated with a shock of corn was being drawn up to receive the waiting football men.

Fed at Hotel.

At the Lincoln hotel, the team was given a farewell supper, after which the crowd, now swelled by the arrival of the cadet regiment a thousand strong, and hundreds of students picked up enroute, marched to the Burlington station, pulling the team on the Cornhusker van.

Co-Eds There Too.

Men and co-eds vied with each other in paying tribute to the departing warriors. It is said to have been the greatest ovation of all the great ovations tendered to a Nebraska football team. There are some who think, however, that it may be surpassed when the team comes home Sunday evening.

The team arrived in Minneapolis at 9 o'clock this morning, and will hold light practice on Northrup Field this afternoon. They left Omaha at 8:45 last night via the Chicago Great Western railway, and will return over the same route, arriving here either Sunday night or Monday morning.

NORMAL GIRLS PICNIC.

Plan an Outing at Pen Woods for Social Purposes.

The girls of the Normal Department of Physical Education, will hold a Wiene Roast Saturday, at 5 o'clock in the Pen woods.

This roast, which was to have been held last week, but which was postponed, is for the purpose of getting acquainted. Miss Gittings and other faculty members in the gym department will be present.

Engagement Announced.

The engagement of Abbie Stewart, 1908, of Blair, Neb., to Lyle Milliken, ex 1904, of Fremont, has been announced. Miss Stewart is a member of the Delta Gamma sorority, while Mr. Milliken is a Delta Tau Delta.

DAN CUPID AT THE FARM GIRL COOKS HAVE DIAMONDS

A safe in which engagement rings may be kept while their owners mix dough or fudge, is needed in the home economics department, according to the future home makers, who claim that domestic science is the quickest way to matrimony.

A movement to induce the legislature to provide some sort of secure place for the betrothal sparklers to rest, has been started by the destined queens of the kitchens of certain lucky men.

Diamond rings are becoming so numerous among the girls at the farm that it will soon be uncommon for an advanced student in the department to be without one.

This week one of the popular girls who would have graduated next June, has fallen victim to Cupid's dart and left school. But her friends say she knows how to keep house, even though she will have no sheepskin to show for her University work.

A member of last year's graduating class who specialized in domestic science, is also expected to become a bride. The engagement has not yet been announced, but it is expected soon by friends of the young woman.

Some of the household arts girls teach their chosen subject after graduating, but it is a matter of record that none of them ever become old maids.

SENIOR HOP TOMORROW

HEAVY DEMAND FOR ADMISSION
TO FIRST VARSITY DANCE
THIS YEAR.

Chairman Tom James of the senior hop to be given at the Lincoln hotel Saturday evening is in the usual quandary as to who shall and who shall not attend the dance.

It was planned originally to limit the attendance to 100 couples, but as it is the first University hop of the year the demand for tickets has already very nearly exhausted the limited number.

Must Have Cash.

"Several fellows have ordered tickets, but have not yet payed for them," said James yesterday. "I have about decided to sell them to those who are ready to pay at once, and will do so after Friday afternoon."

The dance is the big senior informal, and is to be given in the Lincoln hotel ball room.

FUNCTIONS TO BE LIMITED

ARRANGEMENTS BEING MADE TO FAVOR ALL-UNIVERSITY AFFAIRS.

A committee composed of representative students of the upper classes, has been called together by the University senate committee on social affairs, to arrange the dates for such student enterprises and functions as are deemed worthy the undivided support of the student body.

Dates will be fixed for these events, and the authorities will not allow the scheduling of any other events that might interfere with the University project.

The final calendar of these events will be made up on Thursday, October 26, and all requests for dates should be in the hands of Miss Alice Ensign before that time.

Thereafter only such dates as remain open will be available, according to the ruling of the committee.

GEOGRAPHY TRIP TO LOUISVILLE.

Dr. Condra and His Assistants to Conduct Field Excursion.

The field classes in Geography will go to Louisville the last of the present week. The classes will be led by Dr. Condra, the head of the department. Miss Meres and Miss Griffith will have charge of the women of the expedition. Never have the field classes been so large or so enthusiastic over the work.

Miss Meres has been professor in Economic Geology at Peru Normal. She is now finishing her University work at Nebraska after taking courses at Harvard, Chicago and Cornell. After all, there is no place like Nebraska, the greatest school in the country.

NEBRASKA HOLDS RALLY FOR CORNHUSKER TEAM

MEMORIAL HALL PACKED WITH LOYAL SUPPORTERS.

CONFIDENCE MARKS THE MEETING

Coach Stiehm, Fred Hunter, Captain Shonka and Others Make Stirring Speeches on Game.

Enthusiasm breaking all bounds and spreading from Memorial hall to all corners of the campus marked the first football rally of the season at Nebraska, Thursday morning.

Coach Stiehm and his Cornhuskers were present at the rally and were given the heartiest of cheers and not a man of the team but what felt that the whole school was with him in spirit if not in person, in his battle with the Minnesota eleven.

Memorial hall was jammed to its farthest walls with loyal supporters of the scarlet and cream, and they cheered unremittingly the speakers, the team, the coaches, and the band, when that organization stopped playing and allowed the rooters to get in their work.

Spirit Was High.

The meeting was a striking example of the high pitch of enthusiasm to which the spirits of the Nebraska supporters have arisen in the past weeks and the confidence they feel in defeating their ancient enemies, the Minnesota Gophers. Not only were there hundreds of male throats yelling for the Missouri Valley champions, but several hundred of the co-ed football rooters of the school were present to join in the yells. At the close of the meeting they sang "The Cornhusker."

In answer to repeated calls from the students, Coach Stiehm, Coach Rathbone, and the team followed Captain Shonka in a march to the platform, where they were welcomed by lengthy cheers.

Stiehm Speaks.

Coach Ewald O. Stiehm and Fred Hunter, one of the members of the famous 1902 team that trimmed the Gophers, made the speeches of the day, although Captain Shonka, Coach Rathbone, Owen Frank, Dr. Maxey and Elliott all made short talks on the coming game, expressing their faith in the power of the Cornhuskers.

Searle Holmes, of the senior class, was master of the day's ceremonies. "We are on the eve of a great battle," spoke Coach Stiehm. "The eyes of the country are fixed on the game scheduled between these two greatest colleges of the Middle West. Nebraska has speed, strength, and the loyalty of her students, and although we will miss your cheers, in the hearts of the players there lies a determina-
