FRIDAY, OCTOBER 20, 1911.
 The team has gone. There remains but a day or two of anxious waiting, and then we will know.
 Just what we will know, cannot be foretold. We think the wires will carry news of victory. It is possible, however, that we will lose.
 Upon the latter prospect we do not care to look.
 There will be time enough for that if it is necessary after the game. Meanwhile we should have a care as to our actions, should the battle go against us. We should have faith in the team, and in Nebraska, but if lose we must, let it be like sportsmen and gentlemen.

 If the Western championship is not for us, then let us not cry "sour grapes" and sulk, but let us go after and get, what after all, is our more legitimate prey, the Missouri Valley honors. For the present, however, pull for the team and beating Minnesota.
 ALUMNI NOTES.
 Three more alumni associations will be organized in the state before the month is over. George Kline, secretary of the state association, will go to Fairbury the 24th, Kearney the 26th, and Seward the 28th, to organize local clubs at those points.
 Floyd Seybolt, '99, has sold his interest in the Citizens' Bank at Geneva.
 "Tim" McCarthy, '96, is engaged in railroad work at Calgary, Alberta.
 George H. Hummel, '09, has moved to Falls City, where he is starting a general contracting business.
 A. J. and P. B. Weaver are working up a big apple industry at Falls City.

THURSDAY CONVOCATION.
 Miss Marjorie Anderson, a graduate of the conservatory and now a faculty member, gave a piano recital at the Temple yesterday.

Gunmetals for Fall at $3.50 Pair

We have just received a nobby high toe last with short vamp and moderately high heel, in gun metal, either button or blucher. The best value we have ever shown for $3.50---a shoe that we feature in our popular priced lines.

This shoe has style and individuality as well as wearability. It is not only worth the price but in many places would be sold for more. Sizes unusually complete now.
