OUR POSITION.

A local newspaper has made some sensational charges regarding the conduct of several persons connected with the Minnesota-Nebraska game at Minneapolis last Saturday.

We wish to assert the position of the Daily Nebraskan in its official capacity as representing the student body, in this matter.

It is as follows: We have nothing to say one way or the other.

The score of the game was 21-3 in favor of Minnesota. We lost—they won. It is all over, and the more quickly we forget about it, and pre-

MISSION STUDY CLASSES.

Schedule of Meetings for This Week at College Association.

The Mission Study class of the University Y. M. C. A. will meet tonight at 7 o'clock under the leadership of Dean R. Leland.

Wednesday night at the same time the class studying the "Uplift of China" will meet with Lloyd G. Hall as leader.

The problems of a medical missionary will be presented Sunday at 9:15 a. m., at a meeting of the medical group.

pare never to let it occur again, the better. No matter how or why we were beaten, we lost and the game is over. We say, let it rest.

NEBRASKA'S BAND.

Regardless of the fortunes of the football team at Minneapolis, the band won. They won a place not only in the hearts of the faithful few who made the pilgrimage to the north, but also in the estimation of the thousands of Minnesotans who heard the cheery notes they blew out of their old brass horns through that heart-rending game.

Never for a moment did they lose their nerve. While the Minnesota musicians mourned some fallen hero in dolorous ditty, the nifty kahki clad Nebraskans cheered such Corpshuskers as fell, by tooting a tune the import of which was that they didn't care a great deal, we would win any how.

The editor gives to the band his share of what the whole school should tender it—thanks and congratulations for a bunch that is a credit to Nebraska.

classes and any one wishing to join, any or all of these classes, are asked to be present. The topics presented are of absorbing interest just now and it is said will deal largely with the present troubles in China.

IMPORTANT TO SOPHOMORES.

President Cutright Wants Sophs to Get Busy at Once.

Sophomore class meeting Tuesday, October 24, at 11:30, in Memorial hall. Besides the preparation for the Olympics, there is much important business to come before the class. It is imperative that every sophomore attend. We will be working against odds in the Olympics and our success will depend upon the spirit we show. We must have a big meeting today.

SENIOR HOP A SUCCESS.

A large attendance, mostly of upperclassmen, enjoyed a good dance at the Lincoln hotel Saturday evening, when the senior hop, the first university dance of the year, was given.

The success of the affair made everyone happy. In spite of the adverse score at Minneapolis in the afternoon, T. A. James was chairman of the committee in charge and F. A. Wirt was master of ceremonies.
