STIEHM'S FOOTBALLERS TRAINING FOR MISSOURI

Back practicing on home grounds the Cornhuskers are rapidly developing a series of new attacking plays and a defensive organization that will defy the Tigers' most strenuous attempts to get within striking distance of the goal.

Coach Stiehm and his men are not in any way disheartened by their defeat of Saturday, but are going after the Missouri Valley title with redoubled energy and spirit.

Practice Snappy.

Practice went off with snap and style Tuesday at the Farm grounds, the team getting into all forms of the practice game, punting, passing, signal work, and scrimmage play. Several new plays were tried out, the coach playing each one over many times, so that the difficult passes and complex nature of the systems to be used against the Tigers would be thoroughly understood.

Stiehm is slowly developing more speed in the line and more precision in the backfield of the Nebraska eleven, the two weak points. The linemen are learning to open up holes in the opposing team's defense and better than that, the defense of the Nebraska line is much better today than it was a week ago.

Warner Playing.

Warner is out for practice, playing in his regular position in spite of the accident to his nose last Saturday, and the rest of the team seems to have come through the fray in fine condition, due chiefly to the fact that the whole squad was in fit shape when it left here for Minnesota. Potter, the fellow worker of Warner, is handling the ball fast and well and bids fair to become as adept at the position as Jerry.

Missouri is playing Nebraska at her own game and the Cornhuskers will surely have to be better than the Tigers to win. The Missouri team has a strong line, as good a line as Nebraska's, and the backfield is probably every bit—well at least almost as speedy as the Cornhuskers'.

Well Matched.

So it will be a case of Greek meeting Greek. Nebraska will have to simply make the pace too fast and too hot for Missouri—and that will be some fast. The Tigers are now in as good shape as when they had Hackney in the lineup, and possibly he may play here. In the Ames game Missouri declares it was crippled because since losing Hackney it has been forced to develop new styles of play. These plays will be well in hand when they come to Lincoln.

Be there and help win.

NEBRASKA'S DEFEAT MAKES AMES CONFIDENT

Ames, Ia., Oct. 23.—Missouri Valley championship stock at Ames took a sudden boost Saturday night at 6 o'clock, when the telegraph flashed the news that Minnesota had walloped Nebraska by a far larger score than the Gophers had been able to run up on the Farmer team.

Nebraska Still Feared.

Coupled with Ames' victory over Missouri it has put confidence in both the team and the student body and it looks now as if Ames had more than a fair chance for the Missouri Valley title.

But as Coach Williams remarked when the score was told him, "dope don't count when we get up against the Cornhuskers."

We are going to have the game of the season with Nebraska and we have to get down and work to defeat the champions."

Ames has two weeks left in which to prepare for the Cornhuskers and every moment will be one of work.

Next Saturday the Farmers meet Grinnell, which school they expect to defeat by a big score.

Lineup Undecided.

The lineup for the Ames-Nebraska game is uncertain, as Coach Williams is busy developing many substitutes in order to maintain the strength of the team in case of any accidents.

The offensive play of Ames will be one of the points of the team's playing, which will be especially strengthened in the coming week as the Farmer coach realizes that if his team is going to win it will have to be by putting the Cornhuskers upon the defensive as far as possible.

SHINGUARDS

Aha!! A rally Thursday. We can lick the man that says they're no fun.

Missouri is coming up to win that game. My gracious! Hop to it, Cornhuskers!

Are we strong for the girls? Well they're rooting lots and that's what we want.

Running out of Shinguards? Have to try forward passes.

Basketball Started at Ames.

Basketball practice has been started at Ames already.

The Iowa school has determined to make a strong bid for the Valley title in that sport in spite of the fact that Te Veltrup, captain and star center, has left school for California.

RALLY FOR MISSOURI

MASS MEETING HELD THURSDAY IN PREPARATION FOR TIGERS.

Songs, speeches, yells, and our own little grandstand brass band will break forth in Memorial hall Thursday in the second big mass meeting this year—this one to prepare for the Missouri game.

Thursday at 11:00 o'clock there will start one hour of real special fireworks of enthusiasm for the big Tiger game and you want to be one of the bunch.

There will be some new yells tried out (perhaps) and some of our famous rally speakers will put on a line of talk that they promise is absolutely new, and some stories that are really funny.

Come and see the animals.

Stiehm to Talk.

But anyway this will be one of the biggest and best mass meetings of the year.

Coach Stiehm will probably have a few words to say about what he wants Bob Hawley and the rest of the rooters to do to help Nebraska Saturday.

It's a cinch he wants everyone at that meeting, and if he has anything at all to say he can climb up on a step-ladder, so we will all be able to see his face above the crowd.

Missouri wants to beat us.

Come to the rally in Memorial hall and there will be somebody there to tell you how we are going to beat the Tigers and get that M. V. champ title again.
