FRESHMEN DETERMINED TO WHIP SOPHOMORES

MEETINGS BEING HELD TO COMPLETE THEIR ORGANIZATION.

BLOOD TO BE SHED SATURDAY

Plans Now Completed for the Big Lower Class Scramble—To Be Exciting Combat.

Freshman and Sophomore have but two more days to prepare for the big event of the first semester, the annual Olympics Day. The combat this year promises to be one that will be long remembered in Olympic annals, both armies having spent some weeks of training and preparation in order to be in fit shape to get the enemy's angora.

Freshmen are More Numerous.

The underclassmen outnumber the vainer Sophs slightly, but the greater experience of both the class as a whole and of the individual members of the smaller band, it is thought, make up for this deficiency. In addition the Sophs have an added advantage in the fact that they have been organized for a week longer than the Freshmen.

The free-for-all is the event in which the real test for supremacy will be made as this bears all the earmarks of the old time clash rushes which were the joy and diversion of the Freshies and Sophs of former years. The plan of the fight is simply to turn the fighters loose in the arena and let them do their worst.

Details of Big Fight.

A line will be drawn on the eastern end of Nebraska Field and another line on the western end, two side lines bounding the fighting space. The class captains will then flip a coin as to which side gets the choice of the lines.

The free-for-all rules provide that the side which has the most men left inside these lines at the end of a given period wins the free-for-all, so the stunt for the fighters to perform is to pull the opponents back over their own line. After a man has once been pushed back over his own line he cannot re-enter the conflict. Thus the mix will go to the side having not the most men, but those who fight the hardest.

Freshies Hold Meetings.

The Freshmen held a meeting Wednesday night at Memorial hall to organize for the events, entries being made for the wrestling, boxing and marathon events. All other Freshmen are asked to report on the Field Saturday morning, time to be announced later. The Sophomores will hold their rally to night in Memorial hall.

The University girls have planned to occupy their usual places in the grandstand for the Olympics and there will be plenty of other rooters for both sides present to see the big mix. No admission is charged to Olympics.

New Librarian Assistant.

Miss Marguerite F. Hawley has been added to the corps of Library assistants. Miss Hawley graduated from the library course at Simmons College, Boston, last year. She takes the place of Miss Marion Bell, who was married this fall.

GOIN' TO THE RALLY?

Are you going to turn out to the big Rally this morning? It will be held at 11 o'clock in Memorial hall.

A bunch of the old-timers are on for speeches and the band is going to play "Alexander's Rag-Time Band." It will be some big Rally.

Bob Hawley is going to be there to lead the Howls of his Hundred Howlers and they will invite everybody else (including the co-eds) to join in the jolly round of U—U—Uni, Ver—Ver—Versity!

Ne—Bras—Ki, Oh! Oh! My!

CHANCELLOR AT RALLY

DR. AVERY TO GIVE PRINCIPAL ADDRESS AT MASS MEETING TODAY.

Chancellor Avery will personally boost for Cornhusker victory over Missouri by attending the big football rally in Memorial hall this morning at 11 o'clock. He will make one of the principal speeches. It is also expected that he will attend the game Saturday, if possible.

Band on the Program.

A rousing gathering of Cornhusker rooters is assured for the rally. The band will be there with bells on, and the team will have seats of honor on the platform. Cheer leaders Bob Hawley and Les Hyde will direct the vocal enthusiasm of the scarlet and cream backers. The Innocents have the rally in charge.

The hour for the rally has been set at 11 o'clock instead of half an hour later, as heretofore, in order that the meeting will not interfere with the lunch hour. There will be no convocation today, so that all students who wish may attend the football boosters' affair.

Sid Collins to Speak.

Sidney Collins, the star center of the 1910 Cornhusker eleven and all-Missouri Valley center last year, will address the meeting. Others speakers will be Coach Stiehm, Assistant Coach Rathbone, and Captain Shonka.

SENIORS BADLY IN DEBT

UPPER CLASSMEN HAVE DIFFICULTY WITH THEIR EX-CHEQUER.

The senior class is facing a big deficit in the class treasury. According to President Guthrie, a debt of thirty-six dollars is left from last year. A committee was appointed by former President Pearse to collect this, but did not meet with a cordial response from the class members.

Of the thirty-six dollars, about two-thirds is owing to The Cornhusker. The rest was spent for class colors that were worn last year during Junior Week, and for a writeup in the Cornhusker of the year before.

WITH OTHER COLLEGES.

Drake University has secured a seven-dollar rate to Kansas.

Iowa University has offered cups for the best cross-country runners. The runners are to be selected according to their lowest mark in three races.

ENBERG GIVES WARNING

MANY FIRST YEAR STUDENTS ON THE DANGER LINE—BUCK UP.

According to Professor C. C. Enberg, secretary of the faculty committee on delinquent students, a large percentage of the entering class this fall is already in a fair way to develop eye, ear, nose and throat troubles that will necessitate withdrawal from college at the close of the first quarter of the present year.

Many Freshmen Delinquent.

Professor Enberg states that already many freshmen have been reported "down" in one or more five-hour or three-hour courses, and it is necessary to maintain standing in the University that freshmen navigate the waters of the first semester with a cargo of at least 12 hours' satisfactory work. Each year since the installation of the delinquency committee, a large number of men and co-eds have been needed at home shortly after the Thanksgiving recess, and Professor Enberg predicts that this year will be no exception unless the freshmen begin devoting more time to their books.

Committee No Joke.

"Some of them seem to think the delinquency committee is a joke," said Professor Enberg, "and in some cases I fear the time of realization will come too late."

MISS ENSIGN AT Y. W.

ADVOCATES UNIVERSITY READING, REST AND STUDY ROOMS—COMMENDS STUDENTS.

The regular Tuesday evening meeting in the Y. W. C. A. was a great success. Mrs. Willard of the Advisory Board, presided and Miss Ensign spoke on "The College Woman's Ideals."

She said that the college woman should be developed not only in the broader phases of life, but also in that feeling of responsibility to others. College work should be preparation for worthy leadership in all future life.

The students' growing sense of responsibility for classroom conditions was spoken of as promising indication of higher standards of honor in the University.

Miss Ensign touched upon the social spirit of our school and expressed the belief that this spirit would be heartier and more genuine if we might have University dormitories, or University reading, study and rest rooms.

REJUVENATED TIGERS AFTER CORNHUSKER GOAT

MISSOURI ELEVEN NOW TWICE AS STRONG AS LAST WEEK.

ARE COMING TO LINCOLN TO WIN

Coach Brewer's, Athletes Confident They Can Put Touchdown Over On Proteges of E. O. Stiehm.

(Special to The Nebraskan.)

Columbia, Mo., Oct. 24.—Coach Brewer says the Tigers will be 100 per cent stronger next week when they meet Nebraska than they were last Saturday, and if that is so the Cornhuskers will have to put up a mighty stiff game.

Teams Improves in a Week.

A week ago the Tigers could not put a much better article of football than the freshman, having just lost Captain Hackney—the one man of a one man team. But rising to the emergency a team was scraped together that has an abundance of fight in it, a newly-developed drop-kicker and a backfield of as fast men as there are in the Valley.

Hall, a last year's man who has been out of the game on account of parental objection, is back, and is punting even better than last year. So that deficiency is also supplied in the Tiger lineup.

Tigers Have Strong Line.

In Saturday's game at Ames the Missouri line was found invincible—the only touchdown being on a fluke. The two end positions were the weakest spots in the lineup and with a week's hard practice Coach Brewer is confident of picking two men whom it will be hard for the Nebraska players to baffle.

Missourians Confident.

So confident are the Tigers' followers of the ability of the team to beat Nebraska, that a large amount of even money has already been placed against Nebraska, no odds being asked. Captain Hackney saw the Minnesota-Nebraska game and reports that although Nebraska has as strong or stronger a team than it had last year, Missouri's chances of whipping them are fully as good as against Ames, as the team will be nearly twice as strong next Saturday.

The Tigers, with that fighting spirit which is so characteristic, are coming up to Lincoln Saturday with the determination of showing the Cornhuskers the ropes.

May Send Special Train.

Plans had been made for a special train to carry up three or four hundred students to Lincoln Saturday, but the railroad company balked at the last moment and refused to give a special rate.

The number of rooters who accompany the team will probably be very small as a result, however, all of the men's and women's fraternities but two have chapters at Nebraska, and there will be several fraternity parties accompany the team to Lincoln.
