COLLEGIATE MUCKRAKERS.

The voice of the Crane is abroad in the land. Once more this raucous voiced long-bill of the eastern marshes lifts his gangly leg to register a kick on the broad bosom of the American college.

As the French say, "It is to laugh." It reminds us of a day in happy childhood when we kicked the gray mare and dislocated our big toe.

The difference is that Crane is, or ought to be, old enough to know better. Here's hoping he learns before all his toes are broken.

SIGMA TAU INITIATES.

Engineers Usher New Members into the Mysteries of Honorary Frat.

Sigma Tau, the honorary engineering fraternity, held an initiation last Saturday evening at the Lindell hotel. Four new members were initiated into the society, and after the initiation a banquet was served in the banquet room of the hotel.

Professors Stout, Chatburn, Hollister, Chase and Dian attended, and the alumni were represented by William Forman, James Haupham and David Erikson. The men initiated are Ben-

ASLEEP OR DOZING?

Is the University of Nebraska too small to have a mandolin club?

We hope not, but are beginning to fear that there will not be one this year, unless fellows who are accomplished on the mandolin, guitar or banjo wake up and help organize a club.

Rowland Thomas, 1216 H street, automatic telephone 1035, should be communicated with at once by all men who want to boost a mandolin club.

Let's show that Nebraska is far from dead when it comes to stringed instrument harmony.
