START OF WORLD'S CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

The illustration given above was taken during the first inning of the recent series between the Giants and Athletics. Collins is at bat, with Mathewson pitching and Meyers catching.

ATHLETICS HAVE TITLE ARE WORLD'S CHAMPS AGAIN

A second time world's champion team, were Connie Mack's little band when the world's series of 1911 closed at Shibe Park Thursday afternoon. The Athletics walloped the Giants 13 to 2 in the final game, Bender and Thomas doing the battery honors for Philadelphia.

Brains, speed and cleverness, and lots of other things made up the Mack team this year, and they most decisively have proven that the title which Connie copped out last year from the Cubs, was not stolen nor given to them by Fate.

Score by innings:

Giants	1	0	0
Athletics	13	13	5

Batteries—Ames, Wiltse and Meyers; Bender and Thomas.

STUDENTS CHEER AT RALLY

on the field Saturday afternoon. Chancellor Avery was cheered again and again.

Stiehm Makes Good Talk.

He was followed by E. O. Stiehm, all year coach, who implanted himself still more deeply in the estimation of Cornhusker students by the straightforward and manly address he made. Coach Stiehm also complimented his men, and said that although he knew Missouri had a strong team and would put up a mighty struggle, he was optimistic as to the outcome. Thomas H. Matters jr., former star Cornhusker tackle, and last year's guard on the famous Harvard All-American team, which defeated the Carlisle Indians, was the next speaker. He complimented the school on its newly acquired spirit, and assured the students that they had a much stronger team in reality than the Minnesota score might indicate. Matters has been coaching in the east for the past three years, so his judgment is well worth consideration.

Team Called For.

Captain Shonka, Owen and Ernie Frank, Elliott, Hornberger, Lofgren, Potter, Pearson, Harmon, and Assistant Coach Harvey Rathbone, all responded to calls, and made short talks, and the rally closed with the "Cornhusker" sung by the whole crowd.

Verne Bates was platform manager. Bob Hawley and Leslie Hyde led the rooting.
