

OLYMPICS FEVER HIGH

BLOODY BLOODLESS ORGANIZED WARFARE TO BE WAGED ON SATURDAY.

Tomorrow is the big day for Sophomores, Freshmen, and the whole school. Everybody will be on Nebraska Field.

Saturday morning at 9 o'clock, they will see the most exciting contest ever presented to the school in way of Olympics.

Both sides express utmost confidence in their ability to slip one over their opponents. What the Sophomores lack in numbers they will make up in organization.

The Freshmen who are entered for Olympics have made all tryouts and the men entered are the best in the class.

Cross-country team: Hudson, Mc-Masters, Talen.

Boxing: Lightweight—Lynch; middleweight—Waugh; heavyweight—Irwin.

Wrestlers: Lightweight—Not chosen; middleweight—Bates or Shank; heavyweight—Anderson.

The Sophomores have given out the names of their cross-country men—Kennedy, Bog and Froray. All others seem to be kept in the dark.

It has been decided to award 5 points for each event in wrestling and boxing; 10, 5, 3 for first, second and third in the marathon; 10 in the tug-of-war, and 50 points in the free-for-all. This makes 108 points altogether. The officials are to be as follows:

We don't want to pry into your affairs, but how are you fixed for fall furnishings?

Warmer underwear for these snappy days and nights—how about it?

All fabrics, all colors, all styles—we have them—something new too in the closed crotch union suit—real comfort.

Warm night robes and pajamas that will put you to sleep—tasty patterns and trimmings—$1 to $3.50.
