COMPENSATION.
 The University of Kansas has adopted a scheme that should have been in vogue at Nebraska years ago. Each winner of the honor "K" is presented on leaving college, with an aluminum card engraved with his name, the sport in which he won recognition, and his class. This card admits the bearer to any athletic event at Kansas University.
 In this respect Kansas has beaten us to it. We have been asleep on our post, and have let them originate a Valley custom, but let us not delay any longer.
 Certain it is that to our football and

REQUEST FOR GRINNELL.
 Grinnell College is to secure $100,000 from the Rockefeller board on condition that the school raises $400,000 in a limited time.
ADVISES GIRL ROOTERS.
 Minnesota's Dean of Women is training the girls in rooting. "Be careful to keep your voices low; remember that shrieks tend to distract rather than assist," she says.

baseball, track and basketball men, all wearers of major sport letters, life passes to Nebraska University events are due.
 To require them to pay admission, is a poor display of gratitude on our part. They have won the right to remain in a class above the ordinary spectator and student, not only while in college, but as alumni.
 Of course everyone knows that as a matter of fact very few of the old stars ever do pay admissions, but why not do things in a business-like manner, and present them with such cards?
 The athletic board can afford it, we would guess.
 All students should visit the "College Inn Barber Shop at 127 North 12th. S. L. Chaplin, Prop.
LITTLE ILLNESS HERE.
 Is a student immune from the common ills of man?
 The sickness unusually prevalent in the town has left the student body practically unaffected.
 But three cases of student indisposition have been reported to Prof. Engberg. The most serious concerns H. M. Swan, a freshman from Sloux City, who is in a local hospital for appendicitis.

SOUSA AND HIS BAND.
 When Sousa and his band arrived in Vancouver from New Zealand on September 17, they began the last lap of their tour around the world. This tour, which is unique in the annals of military bands, began in New York last November and included various parts of America and Canada. On the day before Christmas the band sailed for England and played their first engagement in London, January 2. Sousa and his men then embarked for South Africa, and, after giving fifty concerts there, they proceeded to Australia and New Zealand. Before returning to New York, where they are due at the end of the year, Sousa's band will fill a number of engagements on the Pacific Coast and in the south and southwest. Sousa has composed a new march, which will be included in the new programs he has prepared for his return to America. Arrangements have been made for his appearance here on November 11, at the Auditorium, Thirteenth and M streets.—Adv.
