

AMES IN GOOD SHAPE TO MEET NEBRASKA

That our old time foe, Ames, is looming up as a formidable competitor for the Missouri Valley championship, is evident when a glimpse is taken of that husky aggregation. The team that Nebraska will meet Saturday is, for the most part, an experienced one being composed mostly of veterans.

Related to Former Nebraskan.

Captain Harte, a brother of the famous Cornhusker tackle, is playing his last year of football. He has been for the past two years the All-Iowa half, and indications are that he will land the same title this season.

Rutledge and McDonald are second year men, but are the best ends in the state.

Juhl is a man that makes the holes. He is playing his second year's game.

Chappell is a veteran end and is known for his pluck and endurance. He never wears a head gear.

Hurst is playing his last year as quarterback, and so far this season has developed a wonderful gait.

Ringheim is playing a sensational game at center.

Hunt is a fearless player who closes his football career this year.

Burge is doing great work with his toe, making a 38-yard place kick at Grinnell recently.

All students should visit the "College Inn Barber Shop at 127 North 12th. S. L. Chaplin, Prop.

The grinning, frost-covered pumpkin is a sinister prophet—he speaks of winter, bleak and drear.
