WOLVERINES REVISING GRIDIRON TEAM LINEUP

Ann Arbor, Mich., Nov. 4, 1911.

This afternoon Michigan meets her first eastern opponent of the year. Since the injury of McMillian the coaches have taken no chances with the team and are sending an almost totally reorganized team to their first battle.

Reorganization.

The field is the scene of secret practice nearly every afternoon and many important changes in the lineup have taken place. Yesterday Johnny Craig went into quarter instead of Picard, who has been running the team since Shorty's mishap. The signs all point to Craig playing in this position today. This means that Torbet will play left half and Garrels will be on the end of the line.

Craig May Go.

Picard is by no means considered as out of the game, for there is no way of knowing how long Craig's ankle will hold out. A hard knock will put him out of the game for good this year. Herchel, a new man from the reserves, is to be tried in his first game as right end.

Yost went east yesterday, leaving Redden in charge of the Wolverine camp. His confidence in the reorganized team is evidently very good.

McMillian Badly Injured.

"Shorty" McMillian was injured in a scrimmage game October 31. He has been the mainstay of the Wolverine camp since his return this year.

In an attempt to circle on an end run he was tackled and the Reserve squad piled on. When the heap was untangled McMillian was found to be injured. At first it was feared that he had broken a leg, for the snap had been heard all over the field. Further examination showed that the injury was not so bad as it might have been. It developed into a partial dislocation of the knee.

Michiganders at Banquet.

"The Michigan alumni of Omaha, Des Moines, Sioux City and intermediate territory demand the presence of President Angell and Professor Knowlton as our guests at a banquet after the game, November 25. We will not take no for an answer." This was the telegram received by the University of Michigan from the Alumni Association of the Missouri Valley.

It was deemed inadvisable for Dr. Angell to make the trip to Nebraska on that date, but we will have Professor Knowlton with us as the guest of the Wolverines.

Hoffman at Indianapolis.

In order to testify as an expert witness in regard to the material and construction of an automobile involved in a lengthy damage suit, Prof. J. D. Hoffman, head of the department of mechanical engineering, has journeyed to Indianapolis, Ind., and will probably not return to his classes this week.

AGGIES ADMIT OUR TITLE.

Kansas School Concede Nebraska the M. V. Championship.

Nebraska is conceded the Missouri Valley championship title by the Kansas Aggies, who met the Cornhuskers to their sorrow here. Following is from the Student Herald there:

"Well it looks like Nebraska has the 'rag.' The way that Owen Frank went through the Missourians must have taken a great deal of the Tigers' fight out of him. This game will probably convince some of the southern members of the conference as to who's who and why. Those Cornhuskers are husky big boys who play football to win and not for the fun of it. Their interference is the best that one could wish to see and in general they play a deadly sort of game.

GIRLS' TENNIS GROWS.

Sixty-Five Co-Eds Join Racquet Organization.

Sixty-five girls are now enrolled in the Girls' Tennis club and more members are expected in the spring. As compared with girls' tennis clubs at other universities, this showing is considered very good, considering the fact that the club was organized only last spring.

Dr. Elda R. Walker and Miss Lulu L. Runge of the faculty, were the principal factors in its organization. They believe that tennis should be one of the foremost of the girls' activities and are working for more courts and equipment, which will be assured when more girls enlist in the sport.

John Bull Takes Off His Cap

to the United States. The English know how to make good caps. They know how to weave good cloths, too—know better than we do. So we import their cloths—but make our own caps—put more go, swagger and jauntness in than the English thought possible.

That's why John Bull takes off his cap to the one American cap that's better than his—the HEIDCAP.

1,000 first class dealers in America sell HEIDCAPS—and some in England.
