INTERCLASS WARRIORS
PREPARE TO MIX IT

Interclass football is fast gaining the interest of the student body and a large attendance is expected to be out at the games to be played Friday. All four classes have good sized squads out for daily practice and the prospects of three hard games to be fought for the interclass championship are strong.

The first of the series of games will be held Friday at three o'clock on Nebraska field. W. R. Krug will captain the seniors, while John Lawler will lead the juniors. In the second game, between the sophomores and freshmen, Ben Beck will be the chief of the terrible sophomore aggregation and H. R. Gallatly of the freshmen.

The final game will be pulled off the Wednesday following the first game. The money which comes from the small admission price of fifteen cents will go to buy sweaters for the winning team. For this reason as large an attendance as possible is desired.

CLASS TEAMS NOTIFIED

THE COACH WANTS TO KEEP THE FIELD IN GOOD SHAPE.

Coach Stiehm has requested that class football teams keep off Nebraska Field save on Wednesdays and Fridays, when games are scheduled, as it is desired to keep the ground in good shape for the Michigan game. All possible means will be employed to have the field and team in ship-shape for that big game.

"Jack" is ill.

The demon rheumatism has once more laid his gouging fingers among the joints of Jack Best, and the genial old trainer, who has followed and favored Nebraska athletes for nearly a quarter of a century, has been missing from his accustomed stool in the gym for the past three days. Jack says it is nothing serious and that in a few days he will be back to convince the boys that they must not fall to "toin ahff the 'ot bawths."

Morningside Off Color.

Four members of Morningside college football team are suffering from typhoid fever. The origin of the epidemic is a mystery, as members of the squad do not eat together. Inoculation with typhoid bacilli will be tried to prevent further spread of the disease. Harry Ewing, an old Nebraska man, coaches the team.

Farm Team Gets Game.

Lincoln Academy and the State Farm teams will meet on the Nebraska Field one week from today. Both teams have been in training some weeks and the Academy team has already added a couple of victories to its record. Fred Hunter, an old Cornhusker star, is coaching his farm lads.

CROSS COUNTRY TEAM
CHOSEN FOR NEBRASKA

Captain Louie Anderson, Kennedy, Swanson, Boggs, and Cales will make up Nebraska's cross country five this year, these five having won the first places in the five-mile tryout held from the school grounds out to the state fair grounds and return.

Captain Anderson led the race from the start until just near the finishing line and then Kennedy and Swanson caught up with him, all three coming across the finish line in the time of 29 minutes, 16 seconds. Boggs won the fourth place in 29 minutes and 42 seconds, and Cales captured the fifth position on the squad.

These five men will represent the Cornhusker flag in the Missouri Valley meet to be run at Lawrence, Kansas, November 18, the day of the Nebraska-Kansas football game there and will also be the Nebraska runners in the Chicago conference meet to be held at Iowa City the week following the Missouri Valley run.

The Nebraska runners are well matched, and as they have been in training since the beginning of school they are running strong now.

Captain Anderson's long stride sets the pace as the squad make its daily trot of from four to five miles, the big leader traveling along at good speed and the remainder of the runners following him at varied lengths behind. There are twenty men in the cross country squad at the present time.

SHINGUARDS

Doane is next here. We will see you at the Doane game. Last one in Lincoln before Michigan.

"Willie" Heston, known to all followers of the gridiron game as one of the greatest halfbacks who ever wore cleated shoes, declares that there hasn't been a Michigan team since 1900, with the exception of the 1906-7, and possibly, the '08 Wolverines, that couldn't have beaten Yale, Harvard or any of the eastern teams. Incidentally "Willie" believes that this year's team is not equal to the Michigan teams of 1900-1904, on which he played, but he states it is the best combination Yost has turned out since that time.

Tulane university, at New Orleans, has a girl, Miss Seiferth, for a football manager. She is the first woman to hold this position. They are contemplating a woman team next year. Who will they play against? Nebraska?

Hooray! We have the old standpat word "Warriors" back in the headline. Is everybody happy?

At the University of Washington, Coach Dobie has ordered all newspaper men and sport writers to stay off of the field. He asserts that they have not treated him satisfactorily and have misrepresented facts concerning the team.

"While I hold my daily pow-wow with the team all writers will be absolutely kept out." The dopsters are wroth and declare that they will go after Dobie's scalp. It's a gay life, this scribbling.

NEW BOOK BY WADDELL.

Kansas City Engineer Publishes an Engineers' Manual.

Dr. J. A. L. Waddell, the engineer who was one of the speakers at the dedication of the new Mechanical Engineering building and who contributed $1,000 to the students' loan fund, has published a book entitled "Addresses to Engineering Students." His interest in engineering education has caused him to publish this book and place it on sale at a price which allows him no profit. It is a book especially valuable to freshmen engineers. There are about three dozen copies for sale at the Temple book store.

John Bull Takes Off

to the United States. The English know how to make good caps. They know how to weave good cloths, too—know better than we do. So we import their cloths—but make our own caps—put more go, swagger and jauntiness in than the English thought possible.

That's why John Bull takes off his cap to the one American cap that's better than his—the HEIDCAP.

1,000 first class dealers in America sell HEIDCAPS—and some in England.
