

SILBER DELIGHTS HIS HEARERS

GAVE HIS USUAL ENJOYABLE CONCERT AT THE TEMPLE YESTERDAY.

Prof. Sidney Silber, of the Conservatory, gave an excellent pianoforte recital at the Temple yesterday morning. Mr. Silber is head of piano instruction at the School of Music, and is unquestionably one of the best in the city. The selections were presented with the force and technique of a master, and commanded the earnest attention of his large audience.

The program was as follows:
Bach—Chaconne, transcribed by Ferruccio Busoni.
Chopin—(a) Berceuse. (b) Scherze, Op. 39.

Ted Marriner, cleaner and presser, is still at 235 No. 11th. Auto 1799. t

MR. HARDY TO TALK ON ITALY

OLD NEBRASKAN TO GIVE AN ILLUSTRATED LECTURE AT CONVOCATION.

Mr. W. E. Hardy, a former student at Nebraska, has just returned from an extended tour through Europe and will give a stereopticon lecture on Italy at convocation this evening in Memorial Hall at 5 o'clock.

Mr. Hardy graduated at Nebraska several years ago. He has been traveling in Europe for some time and the scenes of his lecture are yet vivid in his memory. He is an interesting speaker and his views are very fine. Those who heard his address on England last year will be glad of this opportunity to hear him again.

CO-EDS IN THE COLLEGES.

Purdue co-eds are to have inter-class basket-ball. A pennant will be given the winning team.

Bowling is to be introduced at the University of Washington as a sport for women.

Fraternity houses at Northwestern are to form part of a model campus; their architecture will be the same as the college buildings.

Co-eds at Stanford will not be allowed to wear hats to lectures, exceeding eighteen inches in diameter.

Begin to boost for December 8th.

A wise teacher would say "It is proper to overlook the faults in your friends, but not in your clothes."

But too many men are willing to disobey the advice.

Don't you get into this class.

If you wear a Kensington suit you'll be as faultless in dress as others are faulty.

And remember—they fit, they wear, they satisfy.
