NEBRASKA TEAM FACES DOANE COLLEGE TODAY

Nebraska will face Doane College with a line patched with substitutes this afternoon, and in all probability the subs of the back field also will play the major part of the game. The Cornhusker team is conserving its strength for the annual battle with the Kaw State Jayhawkers next week at Lawrence, Kansas.

Doane After a Score.

Doane is coming up here with the intention of scoring on the Cornhuskers this year. The Crete team believes that it is speedy enough to annex six points, or possibly more, from Nebraska, although Nebraska might get the game.

Coach Stiehm has not stated who will make up the line-up that starts the game, but probably the familiar faces of many of the regulars will be seen in the eleven as it trots on the field.

Ernie Frank will probably play the quarter position and general the team for a part of today. He has been practicing the position all week and proves to be more than a little speedy at handling the ball and getting off the plays.

Team Been Training Hard.

Coach Stiehm has been training his men hard in open work all week, following down punts, forward passing, and all manner of open play, and the Creteites will probably have a few of the big coach's prize plays sprung on them just to show them how the game is played here.

But on the whole Nebraska will go through the regular straight football plays, as the others are being saved for the pleasure of Kansas.

Since the Missouri game the Cornhuskers have lost much of the old ability to fumble at critical moments through strict training by Stiehm, and the open field work will be a revelation to the rooters and enthusiasts who attended practice just before the Ames game.

A Co-ed at a Football Game.

Oh Gwendaline, dear,
Aren't you glad we are here!
Don't your blood race along like a tide?
It think it is glorious!
Wish there were more of us,
Camped on the other side!

Oh, look at the men—
They are rooting again.
Some one must be making a score.
A touchdown, I guess,
I'm not sure, I confess.
I wonder which side it is for?

Oh, Gwendoline, dear,
Aren't you glad we are here!
Aren't you proud of our glorious school?
The bleachers are going.
The score? There's no knowing.
We've won; we do as a rule.

Oh, there comes the team;
Wave the scarlet and cream!
Aren't they dear in their blankets of red?

Oh, there starts the band.
My, isn't it grand!
That's Shonka, I think, ahead.

Now look at them crouch—
Ain't that end man a slouch!
His sweater is torn down the back.
Oh, look at them fight!
I'm scared; its a fright!
Now they're piled in a funny stack.

MAKE SWIMMING POOL OUT OF NEBRASKA FIELD

Great regret is being expressed over the campus by members of all classes regarding the fate of Nebraska Field.

There is talk of raising a fund to excavate on the field and make another one of Lincoln's far-famed saline plunges. This would not take a very large amount of money and a suction pump with a large hose could take the whole field at present. This project is being greeted with great enthusiasm, for a swimming tank has been a long felt want at Nebraska. Already a boat club has been started among the children of Lincoln.

A number of the Cornhusker players are complaining of rheumatic tendencies in their respected and respective families and are asking that the team be taken to practice in some other place.

If conditions do not get too bad, the field may be made all right to use for the remainder of the season by the liberal use of sponge boys on the field during the games.

SHINGUARDS

You had better wear your rubbers today, as the field is still wet. Blotting paper gave out.

Every day there is a growing confidence that Kansas can put the rollers under Nebraska when they meet.—Daily Kansan.

All we have to say is that the Cornhusker team is certainly the little tin god on wheels right now and they are lable to hit that Kansas aggregation like a cyclone.

Brown University has a Chinese football player, a wonder not to be found before this. He responds to the name Tsung-Fah-Liu, and when the coach calls him it sounds like a sneeze with a headache.

At the University of Missouri there were applications for 6,000 reserved seats. The applications were shuffled and drawn from a box. The first drawn had the choice of seats at the Missouri-Kansas game.

John Bull Takes Off His Cap

to the United States. The English know how to make good caps. They know how to weave good cloths, too—know better than we do. So we import their cloths—but make our own caps—put more go, swagger and jauntness in than the English thought possible.

That's why John Bull takes off his cap to the one American cap that's better than his—the HEIDCAP.

1,000 first class dealers in America sell HEIDCAPS—and some in England.
