TO STUDENTS.

You are doubtless familiar with the story of the man who, on the basis of the noise in the swamp, took a contract to catch and fry two million frogs.
 Reasoning in the same way, some of our citizens have requested me to catch and "can" two hundred students for using profane language and raising disturbances in the theaters.
 It will become my duty to comply with the latter part of the request when the students are produced, and I have suggested to the managers that they employ persons familiar with the student body to take the names of not going to put all the Kansas players out of the game next Saturday, the Jayhawkers might have a look-in, but as it is, they will hardly dare come on the field with such a raging inhuman monster as an opponent.

BUT! Burge, himself, will admit that Shonka NEVER USED EITHER FIST OR FOOT AGAINST HIS BODY AT AMES.
 The big 210-pound tackle simply was through the line and upon the kicker so quickly that he almost twice was so absolutely unable to check himself that he ran upon him with his BODY and hurled him to the ground. If it is a disgrace to weigh 210 pounds and be fast on one's feet; if it is a disgrace to play football hard and consistently for everything all who indulge in "The Gang's All Here," etc., or who are guilty of ungentlemanly conduct of any sort in public places.

 Trusting that the students may be somewhat scarcer than the frogs in the fable when the names are taken, I remain
 Yours very sincerely,
 S. AVERY,
 Chancellor.

POOR OLD SHONKA.

Captain Sylvester Shonka of Nebraska is a disgrace to his team, his school and the game of football, according to the Kansas Agricultural School paper.
 "Murder will out," won't it?
 Now we have known Shonka as a football player for a good while; have heard him praised by the coach of the Ames team as the cleanest athlete in the west; have heard him exhort his players in a losing game against a team which was fracturing all rules of football and sportsmanship, to "Let 'em go, boys. If they have to do that to win, let 'em have it."
 But some keen judge of human nature from Kansas who saw the game at Ames in which Sylvie was chased to the sidelines against the will of the fairest referee in the valley, and at the instigation of a howling mob of the cheapest sports we ever saw, has discovered that the big captain is only a "four-flusher" and has been deceiving us all these years.
 We weep to think of such duplicity! And to think that these same Aggies were forced to play against such a brute! If he had not been in the game with his dirty work they might not have been beaten 59-0. If he were there is in it, then Sylvester Shonka IS a disgrace to the game.

 But as for us and Nebraska, may fortune see fit to favor us hereafter with all of such disgraces she can find.
 We will welcome them and honor them as we do Sylvester Shonka, and with their help we will gallop through this one-sided conference like a race horse through a field of draft plugs.
 "Life" is offering a novel and money-making plan to men and women who are working their way through colleges and professional schools. You can find out all about it by sending your name and address on a postal to Life's College Students' League, 17 West 31st St., New York City.

Take a trip with the team. It will do you good.
 Offering the Cigars.
 Storks are in fashion of late. E. E. Anderson, C. E., '06, was presented with a 9-pound baby boy last Saturday. Anderson is assistant superintendent of university grounds and buildings and will be glad to pass out the "smokes" at 207 Adm. Bldg.
