THANKS TO AMES.

A freshwater college to the eastward, whose football team was lucky enough to catch our champions on an off day, has taken upon itself to assume the position of mentor to us. We are refreshed daily with new light let in upon some disgraceful episode connected with the pilgrimage into into the wilderness about central Iowa.

We certainly appreciate these efforts and the spirit in which they are made. We have never seen anything finer, save the courtesy extended to Coach Stiehm during the game, and

Former Nebraskans Wed.

The marriage of Miss Ethel Burkett and Dr. Marion Fore Russell will occur on Thursday, November 23rd. Miss Burkett is well known in University circles, having graduated from the School of Music in 1910. She is a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma.

Better see Louis Hagensick about music for that dance. Auto B-2990.

Freshman Hop Meeting.

There will be an important meeting of the freshman hop committee this morning at 11:30 in room 112 of University Hall. Plans for the coming first year social affair will be completed.

the sportsmanlike attitude of a portion of the spectators.

The regrettable aspect of the affair, however, is that we are forced to realize that only a few of the more cultured and fine-grained of the students are responsible for these sympathetic outbursts. We met quite a number of other fellows over there whom we feel certain are entirely incapable of fostering or voicing such sentiments.

To the fortunate few, however, we extend our congratulations. Such spirit as they have shown would be a credit to any backwoods prep school.

We realize how young, small and inconsiderable Nebraska is among the colleges of this conference and are glad to attract the notice of any other institution, even Ames.

Some day we expect to grow larger and more worthy, but we scarcely hope to attain Ames' class. No.

Let's show the boys where we stand. Torches on sale at the Rag office. Get one and boost for Nebraska.

Old Alumnus Here.

Frederick E. Clements, '83, was on the campus Friday and Saturday. Mr. Clements is now professor in botany at the University of Minnesota.

Registrar's Notice.

The Registrar's office has a number of articles that have been found on the campus and have been turned in there. The list includes fountain pens, pocketbooks, gloves, eyeglasses, etc.

KANSAS ODE.

The little poem below was written by a Jayhawker before our Ames game. He gave it to us on Ames, but he has another guess coming on Saturday's game. He will find that we are "watching out":

A Warnin' for Nebraska.
 (With Apologies to J. W. Riley.)
 You crumpled up Missouri
 An' you'll do as much for Ames;
 You humbled Kansas Aggies,
 An' you won some other games;
 But there's someone in the woodpile
 Sawin' hard without a doubt—
 An' the Jayhawkers'll get you—
 Ef you
 don't watch
 out!

They're a-playin' kind o' fumbly,
 But they're takin' of it slow;
 You'll see 'em win their battles
 Though the score is kind o' low.
 So don't you get th' swell head—
 Wait a bit before you shout—
 For the Jayhawkers'll get you,
 Ef you
 don't watch
 out!

—H. W. Chalkley, in Kansas City Star.

Girls Go to Kansas.

The following Nebraska co-eds have decided to go to Kansas to see the game: Carolyn Hanzlik, 1912; Lucy Keifer, 1913; Irene Neal, 1914; Elsie Moore, 1911; Eula Bates, 1912.
