Miss Trigg at Tuesday Meeting.

At the regular Tuesday meeting of the Y. W. C. A., Miss Daykin played two violin solos; Miss Grace Trigg, extension secretary of the City Y. W. C. A., spoke on Y. W. C. A. in China. She mentioned particularly the work of Miss Grace Coppock, who graduated from Nebraska University and went to China in 1906.

Miss Trigg says the Y. W. C. A. in China is very much like our associations here. They have association rooms, transient accommodations for Chinese girls, and different classes very much as we have. Miss Trigg told, also, something of her work here in the city.

Many Trees on Campus.

In the recent census of trees of the city, taken under the direction of Dean Bessey, it is found that there are 320 trees on the campus, constituting thirty-six different kinds. On

A clock that struck thirteen would be doing more than is required of it.

And when it comes to quality, style and fit Kensington clothes strike thirteen.

They have just a little bit more than the average man expects—a lot more than he requires.
