

Newest Clothes

Which would you prefer, clothes that were bought last February, or clothes that were bought last week?

Last week we bought a big consignment of "L System" suits---they are fresh from the market embodying the newest ideas of the season.

"L Systems" are built to suit the individual needs of young men---they are the kind of clothes you want. Not loud, but live---original in fashion and perfect in tailoring---every graceful line breathes life, and action, and good taste.

In this lot there is an endless array of attractive models. We want you to know what perfect clothes can be made for young men---we want you to stop in and slip on some of these garments. Splendid values---splendid styles.

$20      $25      $30

MAGEE & DEEMER
 LINCOLN                      AURORA                      RED OAK

BLAZING TORCHES IN BIG SEND OFF PARADE

(Continued from Page 1)

the city, amusing the onlookers with snake dances and songs.

As a result of the recent admonition of the Chancellor, the songs were characterized by an absence of profanity and thereby the "true" Nebraska spirit displayed itself.

The team was drawn on a hay-rack, which had been very fittingly decorated by the Black Masque.

After a circuit of several miles had been completed and the crowd had gathered force, the parade turned toward the depot.

Here, amid wild cheering and the resonant notes of U-U-U-N-I, the team boarded the train---to BEAT Kansas.

It's the game we must win. Kansas next Saturday.

The Universities of Japan and China are expected to enter track and field teams in the Olympic games at Stockholm next year.

Help break the Kansas hoodoo!

Fireproof stands will be built at the Yale athletic field to replace the wooden ones which were burned after the Harvard-Yale game last year.

UNPROFANE ROOTING URGED BY THE CHANCELLOR

(Continued from page 1.)

ground. He did not see that the college spirit was hurt by it.

Sidney Collins, center of last year, said he wanted to see the real booster spirit. He thought that any man who couldn't believe in the present Cornhusker eleven was not worthy of being a member of the student body. "Cut ice, boys, we never can win unless we cut ice."

How about going to Kansas?

The Tri Delta house at Iowa City burned. The girls lost about everything they owned in the way of clothing.

Help break the Kansas hoodoo!

"Oh, Bill, what's the Knight of the Bath?"

"Why, Saturday, you bonehead."---Yale Record.

December 8---Nebraska-Iowa Debate.

Fourteen "co-eds" have been awarded "W's" for competing in various women's sports at Washington.

How about going to Kansas?

SPECIAL TO KANSAS

The special train to Lawrence for the Nebraska-Kansas game leaves tomorrow night at 9 o'clock via the Union Pacific railroad.

The U. P. station is under the O Street viaduct; the city ticket office at Eleventh and O Streets.

The fare, round trip, is $7.50, exclusive of berths. Berth fare, tourist, is $1 each way; standard, $2.00.

Special coaches are provided for the co-eds and Miss Alice Ensign has charge of the reservations.

The moment you put on clothes made to your measure, you see the vast difference between merchant tailored and ready made. Our way costs no more. Be sure to see our line first.

College Tailors

College View, Nebraska
 Phone 48

Green skull caps with a three-inch visor and a red button an inch in diameter must be worn by the Indiana University freshmen.

In the last forty-one years Brown University at Providence, R. I., has graduated forty-one men who have become college presidents.