

CATHOLIC CONVENTION HERE

NATIONAL ORGANIZATION COMMENCES CONCLAVE HERE THURSDAY.

The national convention of the Catholic Students' Association of America will be held in Science Hall of the Temple on Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week, under the auspices of the Nebraska Catholic Students' Club. Delegates from many universities throughout the country will be in Lincoln to attend the convention.

Many questions of importance to the Catholic students of this country will be discussed at this annual meeting. The business of the convention will occupy the time of the delegates from 8 a. m. until 6 p. m. The local club has arranged an excellent program for the entertainment of the visitors, and the Knights of Columbus will give a reception for the delegates and local club members on Thursday evening, at their hall in the Brownell block.

The annual banquet of the association will be held at the Lindell Hotel, Friday evening at 6 o'clock, at which Bishop Tihen will be the guest of honor. After the banquet the delegates will be entertained at a theater party.

The delegates will attend the Nebraska-Michigan game en masse. In the evening the local club will give a reception and dance in the Music Hall of the Temple, which will be attended by many of the Catholic Club alumni, who will be in the city to witness the Michigan game.
