

BIG CROWD AT JUNIOR

MANY ATTEND INFORMAL OF THIRD YEAR STUDENTS HELD SATURDAY NIGHT.

The Junior Hop, held Saturday night at the Lincoln Hotel, was a success in every sense of the word; in fact, it was one of the biggest "hits" of the dancing season. In size and enthusiasm it resembled a mass meeting.

Everyone stepped on everyone else, apologized, and struggled on; the defensive work of several couples reached a stage of efficiency nothing short of marvellous. After sixteen rounds of spirited, but pleasant, gliding about, the contest closed.

The committee in charge reports that financially the affair was successful.

and other high schools, efforts to secure new students for the University will be made soon by the club among the seniors of those schools. This is understood to be the outlined work of the Omaha Club in accordance with its policy of convincing possible new students that the University of Nebraska is the best place for Nebraskans to get their college education.

A constitution for the new club has been prepared by a committee authorized and appointed at the preliminary meeting. At the Thursday morning meeting the constitution will be submitted and five permanent officers will be elected.
