

STUDENTS FEAR JERRY WARNER HAS DEPARTED

A rumor that Jerry Warner, who has just been elected captain of the 1912 Cornhusker football team had left college caused no little excitement on the campus yesterday.

It develops that the All-Missouri Valley quarterback has indeed mysteriously departed from Lincoln. He was first missed when he did not appear at the banquet tendered the team by Lincoln business men, Monday evening, and when again he failed to show up at the banquet in Omaha Tuesday some anxiety was felt.

At the Kappa Sigma fraternity house nothing was known save that Jerry had suddenly packed a suit case and disappeared.

It is well known that the husky quarterback has an intense antipathy for publicity and praise, and it is thought by some that he has left for a few days to avoid the showering congratulations of his friends, for Jerry Warner.

Jerry is probably one of the best known and liked men on the campus.

It is known that he is well up in his studies—in fact, is above the average as a student-athlete,—and those in a position to know say that he will be back within a day or two, or at least immediately following Christmas vacation.

Should he fail to finish the present semester it is said he would be ineligible for football next fall.

BASKET-BALL INTEREST HIGH AT TEMPLE SCHOOL

Temple High School has a basketball team entered in the City League that is a wonder and looks as if it could clean up anything tackled. Starting out this year with a squad of forty men, including last year's stars, Chapin, Gutzmeyer, Arteburn.

The schedule is nearly full, but it has a few open dates for outside high schools.

The City League contains teams from the State Farm, Temple High, Y. M. C. A. Juniors, Lincoln Academy, Nebraska Military Academy, Lincoln Business College, Lincoln High School, and Nebraska School of Business.

EAR MUFFS

Horatius held the bridge, but who held Horatius?

What is coming to us? We expect it every day.

Love may laugh at locks, but it won't pay the grocer.

Will you get these Christmas atrocities:

- Copper smoking set?
- New bath robe?
- Brass inkstand?
- Red necktie?
- Pair of overshoes?
- Burnt wood pipe rack?
- Imitation silver picture frame?
- Necties in boxes?
- The combination, ribbon-tied package of perfumery and toilet soap?
- The combination box of garters, sleeve-holders and suspenders?
