

FAVORS OPEN STYLE GAME

COACH STAGG WILL OPPOSE ANY IMPORTANT CHANGES IN PRESENT RULES.

In the coming meeting of the national football rules committee, Coach Stagg of Chicago University will endeavor to keep the present open style game. The abolition of the forward pass; the increasing of the number of downs in ten yards, or the decreasing of the distance to be gained on three downs are the most important things that have been suggested. Coach Stagg declares that the forward pass will not be dropped, but that he will have a few minor changes to introduce in regard to it. He thinks that the forward pass should be used for another year, at least, and thinks that next season the eastern coaches will be of the same opinion.—Purdue Exponent.

Company I Steals March.

The first shot was fired in the annual "compét" and incidentally the Military Ball was given a little free advertising when the heavy artillery in front of the library appeared yesterday morning gaily bedecked with the yellow colors of Company I. It is rumored that the other companies of the regiment are planning some new stunts which will entirely eclipse this coupe d'état of Captain Palne's men.

Captain Yates Makes Statement.

"The following is again published for the benefit of all cadets: The military department has not adopted the shoe of any firm as the 'official shoe,' nor has anyone been given authority to designate any particular one as such. All that is required is a high tan leather shoe, preferably a lace shoe, with a medium or heavy sole. They may be purchased wherever cadets desire."
