

ABUNDANCE OF MATERIAL MAKING COMPETITION KEEN

Nebraska has started the basketball season with enough good candidates to make a number of fine college squads. There are more men on the floor than ever before. O Frank, captain, Sam Carrier, Hiltner, Owens, and Gibson, and were all on last year's team and are in the field to repeat their victories and retrieve the defeats. Seemann, Martin, Haskell, Stryker, Nagle, Trimble, Hanzlick, and Cutright were either on the freshman team last year, or were on the 'Varsity squad. Les Hyde is out this year and expects to make good after his past work.

Men who are on the floor and show up well when it comes to tossing the pill, are Bates, Spear, Wellenbery, Kieffer, Underwood, Martin, Meyer, Proud, Beck, F. Kruse, Stryker, Glade, Chauner, Erickson, Cavan, Williams, Purdy, Kirby, Swanson, Hoffman, Diers, Bliss, and Hanson.

With this bunch of bounders Nebraska is going to husk the Valley till it will tremble at the thought of the schedule. Trimble and Nagl have both had much experience with the leather sphere and the former high school stars have often by their own work brought a losing team into the home stretch with the ribbons in both hands.

MAURICE F. GOODBODY LEAVES NEBRASKA UNI.

Maurice F. Goodbody, a member of the Nebraska tennis team, left Lincoln this week for his home in New York City, where he will enter one of the large banks doing both American and European business. Goodbody was one of the best tennis men of the University and the raqueters will feel a similar loss in February, as Tate, the present holder of the championship, leaves to join Goodbody, and the two will make a trip to Europe.
