

HARMON AND STELK OUT FOR WRESTLING HONORS

Harmon and Stelk are to be found on the wrestling mat every afternoon. The big men pant and grunt till the canvas sounds like a cross between a race war and a newspaper office.

Under the supervision of O. W. Miller the men are coming along in good shape and both of them will be able to step into Elliott's shoes when the Iowa match comes off this year. At present they are trying out a few brand new holds which will put a jolt into anybody who happens to bump into the big boys.

EAR MUFFS

T. Pontius Quinn strolled to the ticket window and, breaking in ahead of about forty-five persons who were in a hurry to catch a train, he asked, "Does the plumber hit the pipe if the tailor used the needle?" Just then a red cap hurried to him and handed him a telegram, in a yellow envelope. T. Pontius Quinn opened it and read to the waiting crowd: "If the rail, road, did the board walk?"

The University of Washington has given out the following remarkable statistics: The average time spent by the average student for each credit hour per week was 1.78 hours; the average time of the law is recorded at 1.40 hours' preparation; the engineers come in strong with 1.90 hours; the academic bunch class with 1.74 hours. We don't like to make any caustic comments, but we wish the registrar of that institution would loan his pipe to us when we count our railroad fare home.

The professional joiner will probably be barred from other sports hereafter.

Remember, dark curtains are no excuse for a dirty window.

Why not stay in Lincoln during vacation? It is cheaper. It costs five dollars a week here; at home it sets somebody back five a day.

Well, it came. We knew all about it, but were a little surprised when we awoke Sunday morning to think that it could snow so much inside of two hours and a half that the open face clock was covered.

BYRD COMMENTS.

Washington Star Expert Criticizes Selection of Walter Camp.

H. C. Byrd, the football expert of the Washington Star, has handed Walter Camp a jolt and at the same time helped to put Nebraska on the football map.

Camp, in picking his All-American team, could see no other part of the football world beyond the Alleghenies. Byrd has, in reply to the team, said: "There is little doubt in their minds that men like Shonka of Nebraska and Rosenwald of Minnesota deserve places on the honor team picked by the Yale man."

"Had Nebraska won from Minnesota it would be able to lay a better claim to the western title than any of the other elevens. The fact that it showed to good advantage over Michigan last week and really outplayed that team, although only getting a tie, shows that had it been lucky enough to get away with the winning end of the Minnesota game it would now be rated at the head of western teams."

"The game Saturday in which Nebraska played Michigan a 6 to 6 tie, reflects a great deal of credit on the team, in that Michigan has nearly always proved the superior of the eleven which the Cornhuskers have sent against it in the past. This is the first time that the teams have met for quite a while, but when meetings between the two were annual features of western football the Wolverines nearly always won."
