WESTERN UNIVERSITIES' INTERCOLLEGIAT FIVE

An intercollegiate basketball quintet has been organized by five former stars of Western universities. Penn and Ryan, formerly of Illinois, are forwards, John Schommer, ex-University of Chicago star center, and Freeze and Artley of Notre Dame, the guards. The team is seeking games with college squads.

Class in Boxing.

A class in boxing will be started at 7:30 p. m., Wednesday, January 16th, in the locker room of the Gymnasium. All students who desire to enter this course should be present at the time mentioned above. Jack Best and E. C. McKee will have charge of the class. A fee of $5.00 will be charged for twenty lessons.

"DOG" EAGER REMEMBERS GIRLS' PREVIOUS EFFORTS

Co-eds will have a chance to use their season tickets again.

"Dog" Eager announces that he has reserved the choice section of the grandstand in the Armory for the girls' squad at the basketball games this winter.

This section is the center of the south side.

Plans for organized rooting are afoot, and a large portion of the co-ed crowd which turned out to help win the football games is expected and provided for during the basketball season.

Manager Eager expresses his delight at the way in which women students have taken hold of athletic interests this year, and states that a greater feature will be made of the girls' squad next year.
