CORNHUSKERS TAKE SECOND CONTEST FROM DRAKE TEAM

The Blue and White warriors from Drake went down to defeat at the hands of the Cornhusker team when they went up against a score of 35 to 14 Saturday night.

The game was very rough, Nebraska drawing twenty fouls and Drake thirteen. Several men were withdrawn in the second half for personal fouls and the substitutes took care that the game was not so wildly exciting as it had started.

The Des Moines men did not show up as well as in the game of Friday night, securing but two field goals during the entire game.

The Scarlet and Cream five were in good trim and the play was remarkable for the individual playing. Carrier went through the usual stunt of carrying off the honors of the day and Nagle scored heavily in his brilliant defensive play. In the last of the first half the Nebraskans played with the ball. Frank stood in the middle of the floor while the entire Drake bunch ran in ever more intricate circles around the rest of the Cornhusker team. This lasted for fully a minute.

The following is the lineup:

Nebraska	Position	Drake
Nagle	Forward	Maricle
Gibson	Forward	Lansing
Stryker	Center	Colville
Carrier	Guard	Hardesty
Frank (Capt.)	Guard	Neiman (Capt.)

Summary: Field goals, Nagle 2, Gibson 6, Stryker 3, Carrier 2, Frank 2, Colville 1, Neiman 1. Foul goals,

Nagle 3, Gibson 2, Lansing 7, De Butts 2. Substitutes: Henzlik for Nagle, Underwood for Gibson, Hiltner for Stryker, De Butts for Maricle, Havens for Lansing, Jordan for Hardesty. Referee, R. H. Seymour. Timekeeper, Aug. Smith.

220 Record Broken.

E. Cross, a sophomore at Princeton, broke the intercollegiate record for the 220.

His time was two minutes and thirty-seven seconds, which clips off one second from the former record.

Maroons Out for Track.

Seventy candidates have reported for track work at Wisconsin.

Juniors and Seniors.

All pictures for the Cornhusker have not been taken. It is our intention to have every junior and senior in school represented in the 1912 Cornhusker. If you have received no notice, it means an oversight on our part. We want no blanks in our ranks. See Townsend before going to the hospital.

SUMMER BASEBALL OPENS WEDGE IN COLLEGE WORLD

The College Athletic Conference, consisting of a number of the middle-western schools, Lake Forest, De Pauw, Beloit, Knox, and Racine, passed a rule at the last annual meeting which reads as follows: College baseball players may now play for money at any time when the college is not in session. The resolution was submitted by H. C. Coffeen and H. E. Hurlbut.

This particular conference has always been noted for its spirit of progressiveness and ability to keep up with the times. To it belongs the honor of being the first conference to do away with the old-fogish idea that college sports are injured if a participant should have ever played for money.

This is the best and easiest way out of the muddle where the pot is calling the kettle black. It is hoped and expected that the other conferences, including the Missouri Valley, will follow this decisive step.

Coach Richard's Wisconsin plans for winter ball are liable to be seriously interfered with because Commandant Bell of the Military Department refuses to excuse the players from drill.

Freshman Caps.

Freshmen who ordered caps may now secure them at the hat department of Mayer Bros.' store upon payment of seventy-five cents and surrender of their deposit receipt.
