

NEBRASKA FIVE BACK
VICTORS IN EVERY BATTLE

The Cornhusker basketball team returned Sunday from their very successful trip into the field of the Kansas schools and brought back every game, all of which were hotly contested.

At the Kansas Ag. School the game came into the Nebraska fold 26 to 25. Gibson is touted by the Aggies to be the best player that ever played on the farmers' floor. Haskell comes a close second in their mind.

The games at the University of Kansas were both Nebraska's at a score of 30 to 26. The games were very close with honors being about evenly divided in field goals and all around work. Frank and Carrier starred.

NEBRASKA FIVE WINNERS
ACCORDING TO GRIFFITH

According to Coach Griffith of Drake, Nebraska has the winning Missouri Valley Conference basketball team. "It looks like Nebraska for the basketball championship of the valley. The score of our recent game does not indicate the fight put up by our men, but we were badly outclassed. However, the Nebraska floor was much smaller than ours and I will predict that they will win every game within it, for they know how to use every inch of space. Owen Frank and Gibson are both football players who have made good in the line of basket-tossing."

NEBRASKA RIFLE TEAM HOLDS INITIAL SHOOT

The Yates Rifle Team held its first competitive shoot on Saturday, January 20. Eleven men who were previously picked shot twenty scores and the highest five in each shoot were counted together to make the team score.

Saturday two shoots were held, one against Iowa, and another against Michigan. Nebraska came out the better of Michigan by 8 points. The Iowa score was 961, a record.

The scores against Iowa were as follows:
Feenster ... 178—87 standing, 91 prone
Dresher ... 176—86 standing, 90 prone
Gunther ... 171—72 standing, 92 prone
Roberts ... 164—75 standing, 89 prone
Wohlenberg 164—72 standing, 92 prone

Total ... 853 vs. Iowa—961
