

SIGMA ALPHA EPSILON WINS INTER-FRAT MEET

Sigma Alpha Epsilon walloped its brother fraternities Saturday and won the annual inter-fraternity indoor track meet with a total of 33 points out of a total of 109 points. Delta Upsilon was second with 24½ points, Beta Theta Pi third with 20½ points, and Alpha Theta Chi fourth with 17½ points.

The Sig Alphas won the inter-frat relay and the Chi Omega won the inter-sorority feature relay; the Delta Gamma being a close contender. Wiley of the Sig Alpha team was the individual star of the meet, winning a total of two firsts and being on the winning relay team.

Following the meet a matinee dance was held.

NEW RECORD IS AGAIN SET BY YATES RIFE TEAM

The Yates Rife Team again raised the record in the shoot that was held against Minnesota last Saturday. A score of 861 was made, as compared with the former record of 858.

The individual scores for Saturday were as follows:

D. G. White	84	96	180
E. T. Wohlenberg	84	92	176
A. Kjeldgaard	81	91	172
C. F. Feenster	80	88	168
K. Graul	74	91	165

The report from Michigan shows that Nebraska won the shoot held a week ago by a score of 858 to 821.

"THE TRAIL" A SUCCESS

LARGE ATTENDANCE OF WILLING CONTRIBUTORS IS PRESENT AT THE AFFAIR.

"The Trail," which succeeded "The County Fair," met with a deserved success at the Temple Saturday night. Miss Drake, secretary of the Y. W. C. A., although she has not completed an inventory of the accounts, declares that a favorable balance is certain to result. A large attendance of willing contributors was present. The following organizations participated, giving these features:

Union, "Across the Plains"; Palladian, "Big Sioux Dance"; the physical training girls, "The Wooing of Hiawatha"; the Silver Serpent sold lemonade; Black Masque, cracker-jack; Delta Zeta, waffles; Alpha O, ice cream, and the Chi Omegas served at "The Boston Tea Party."

Kappa Alpha Theta presented "The Evolution of the American Girl," and operated the shoot-the-chutes; Delta Delta Delta told fortunes; Delta Gamma presented "Pocahontas and John Smith"; Alpha Phi, "Militant Suffragettes"; Alpha Chi Omega, "College Days"; the Historical Society, "Campfire Stories," by Mrs. Knotts, and "Indian Lovers," by Mr. Gilmore. An enjoyable musical program was given in the theatre by Mrs. Conant and Miss Louise Zumwinkel.

Register with Thornburg's orchestra. Auto B-2556.
