

HEARD DAILY

TELEPHONE:

"Well, Henry, I am just awfully sorry, but I went with some of the girls to the Orpheum this very afternoon."

"Would I like to see the 'Bohemian Girl' at the Oliver instead? That would just tickle me to death."

"My father is terribly indulgent to me. He just sends me a bunch of signed checks for me to fill out myself."

"Sure I think the 'Rag' ought to grow, but I can't afford it this semester. Board costs too much."

"Congratulations on your election, old man. I was sure all the time that you were the best man for the job."

"Special attention given to student custom."

"Why, sure. I've got a bid to the Sigma Theta formal nailed down tighter than a rock."
