NO DATE SET FOR BANQUET.

Inter-Fraternity Council Will Settle Matter at Next Meeting.

The date of the Pan-Hellenic banquet, the big annual feed of the Greek world, has not been definitely decided. The next meeting of the inter-fraternity council will take up the matter and determine the time. Last year the event took place the night before Ivy Day, and if the same custom is followed this year, as is generally conjectured, it will put the banquet on the evening of April 21.

FARM PLAY FRIDAY NIGHT.

"The College Chap" Will Be Presented at Temple.

The University Farm seniors will give "The College Chap" in the Temple Friday evening.

The cast has been practising for many weeks under the leadership of Mildred Bevins and will undoubtedly make a creditable showing.

A large attendance from the Farm is assured.

Resolutions of Sympathy.

Whereas, Our fellow-student, Ernest H. Hahne, has suffered a great sorrow in the death of his mother;

Whereas, We, his friends and fellow-students, realize how little we can do for him in this hour of his grief, yet wish to assure him of our sympathy for his loss; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we, the second-year class of the University of Nebraska College of Law, do hereby express to our classmate our sympathy, and our own sorrow that we cannot do more to help him.

SOCIAL WORKER SPEAKS.

Graham Taylor Talks to Miss Eaves' Professional Class.

Graham Taylor spoke before Miss Eaves' professional class in social work Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock on the definite opportunities open to both men and women in social settlements, government service, playgrounds, municipal work, and various socializing institutions. There were several outsiders present at this meeting.

Negro Paper on Exchange.

It might be of interest to our readers to know that we have on our exchange list "The Tuskegee Student," a paper entirely edited and managed by negroes. It comes out weekly during the school year and bi-weekly during the summer vacation; the subscription price is 50 cents a year.

Accredited Nebraska High Schools.

The following Nebraska high schools were accredited by the association: Albion, Ashland, Auburn, Aurora, Beatrice, Blair, Crete, David City, Doane college academy, Falls City Fremont, Friend, Geneva, Grand Island, Hastings, Hastings college academy, Havelock, Hebron, Holdrege, Kearney, Lincoln, McCook, Nebraska City, Nebraska military academy, Nebraska Wesleyan academy, Norfolk, North Platte, Omaha, Pawnee City, Plattsmouth, Schuyler, Seward, South Omaha, Superior, teachers' college high school, Tecumseh, University Place, Wahoo, York.

A course in domestic science will be installed in the Grand Island public schools.

There's nothing in spring styles as popular as the English model.

The cut above shows the Kuppenheimer adaptation of the idea.

Unpadded shoulders, soft rolling lapels, high closing vest, narrow trousers—English in idea but American in perfection of tailoring.

We've a full line of them---also everything else in spring togs for young men.
