SURPRISE SPRUNG IN CORNHUSKER ELECTIONS

KOMENSKY CLUB MAKES DEBUT
IN POLITICAL CIRCLES.

DRISCOLL IS DEFEATED BY KAVAN

Margin of Two Votes Decides Ballot—
Chandler Trimble Is Elected
Managing Editor.

The exciting political race for the 1913 Cornhusker positions in the sophomore class culminated yesterday in the election of Chandler Trimble for managing editor, and William Kavan for business manager. The contest for the latter position resulted in a majority of one vote in favor of Kavan, but on a second count the majority was raised to two votes over the number cast for Driscoll, who was the only other candidate. Trimble's election was easy, he receiving more than two-thirds of the votes cast.

Until Monday, Driscoll was the only candidate announced for the position, but Kavan, at the request of his friends, at the eleventh hour made a short but energetic campaign which won him the election. A very important factor in Kavan's election was the aid rendered him by the Komenisky Club, which made a very active debut into the political world, its sophomore members apparently attending the meeting en masse and beating a candidate backed by Iron Sphinx.

Something About Winners.

Kavan is a non-fraternity man from Omaha. He is well known in the school as a member of the basketball club, the mandolin club and the Pershing Rifles. He is well qualified for his new position, having left a lucrative civil service position in Panama in order to secure a University education. He also worked his way unaided through high school.

Chandler Trimble, who was elected business manager over Albert M. Smrha, is also from Omaha, and is a member of the Alpha Tau Omega fraternity. He is literary editor of the Daily Nebraskan and the Cornhusker and is a member of the English Club. He has also had previous experience in literary work in high school and is possessed of unusual ability in this respect.

THE COLONEL IS COMING.

Roosevelt Will Speak at Auditorium
Friday Night.

Theodore Roosevelt, of Oyster Bay, N. Y., will be the guest of his Lincoln friends Thursday when he comes to the capital city to deliver a campaign address. The Roosevelt meeting will be held in the Auditorium and will begin at 8:00 o'clock. Governor Aldrich will preside.

With the memory of La Follette still fresh in mind, and in view of the colonel's recent overwhelming victory in Pennsylvania, it is expected that a record crowd will be on hand to hear the ex-president.

GERMAN PLAY NOW READY

PRODUCTION OF "MINNA VON BARNHELM" PROMISES TO BE GREAT SUCCESS.

"Minna von Barnhelm," Lessing's most famous and most popular comedy, which is to be presented as the annual German play, Friday night at the Temple theatre, promises to be the greatest success yet attained in the history of the German Dramatic Club. The leading roles will be taken by Herman Wiebe as "Tellheim" and Miss Alvina Zumwinkel as "Minna." Both have been laboring patiently for more than two months in the preparation of their roles, and they now have their parts well in hand. Those who are to play the minor roles have been no less active. Minna's keen witted maid, the fiery patriot Werner, Tellheim's faithful servant Just, the host, and the Frenchman will be played by persons who are admirably fitted for their respective roles, both naturally and through careful preparation. A dress rehearsal Thursday will end the practice.

Miss Heppner, who is the coach of the German Dramatic Club, and who has coached former German plays, has put forth every effort to meet the difficulties involved in the staging of this drama.

The cast complete is as follows:

NEBRASKA SPIRIT STRONG

ERNEST HUBERMAN WRITES OF
MEETING OF FORMER CORN-
HUSKERS AT HARVARD.

Ernest Huberman, ex '13, and president of the German Club and associate editor of the Daily Nebraskan in 1911, who recently took a prominent part in a play given by the Harvard German Club, has been heard from on Nebraska spirit at Harvard. During his stay at Nebraska, Mr. Huberman became quite well known and his letter will interest many:
"Editor Daily Nebraskan,
"Lincoln, Nebr.

"Since Cornhuskers appear to be interested in Oxford University, there can be no doubt that they would like to know something about the doings of the Nebraska grads and ex-students at Harvard. The occasion presented itself in the form of a very enthusiastic rally of Nebraskans in Boston on the evening of April 10.

"On this evening the Nebraska Club of Harvard held its second annual banquet at the Hotel Floridike. Sixteen out of twenty-seven members were present, which is remarkable when the rush of events at this time of the year is considered.

BANQUET TO A. T. NEWMAN

ALPHA TAUS GIVE FAREWELL
AFFAIR FOR THEIR DE-PARTING BROTHER.

At the Lincoln hotel last evening the Alpha Tau Omega fraternity gave a farewell banquet in honor of A. T. Newman, who leaves today for San Francisco to embark there for the Philippine Islands to assume a position which he recently received in the constabulary of the Islands.

Mr. Newman was instructor in the chemistry department of the University. As a result of merited grades in the recent civil services examinations, he received the appointment to the constabulary.

He will receive his degree en absentia at the June commencement. While in the University he was active in military affairs, being captain of Company M and chairman of the committee in charge of the military ball.

PIONEER TALKS TO STUDENTS

The man who enjoys the distinction of being the first male white baby to be born in the state of Nebraska, Dr. Samuel P. Merrill, of Rochester, N. Y., spoke at convocation yesterday on early life in Nebraska.

His father crossed the great central plains in a prairie schooner in 1833, and settled at Fort Bellevue, to become a missionary among the Otoe and the Omaha Indians. At that time there was only a handful of whites in the entire territory west of the Mississippi.

The boy, Samuel P. Merrill, was born in 1835. Five years later the father met death and the mother and son journeyed back to their friends in the East. Some of the things he experienced and some of the wild sights he saw at this tender age were so indelibly burned into his memory that even now he can recall them vividly. In his talk at convocation he recalled these exciting scenes of pioneer life in this state.

BALLOT FOR SENIOR PLAY

TEACHER OF AESTHETIC DANCING
WILL TRAIN UNIVERSITY GIRLS.

Miss Alice Howell, coach of the senior play, is planning to have a large ballet of University girls dressed as fairies take part in the annual senior production.

Word has been sent to all the sororities and several of the larger boarding houses that three or four girls from each house can be used.

Mrs. Green, of Chicago, a teacher of aesthetic dancing, will train the ballet.

TWELVE ARE DELINQUENT.

Report of Committee Shows Few Have Fallen Below Standard.

The delinquency committee, having sifted over the reports of the instructors, has announced that there are but twelve men and women in the school who have fallen below standard this semester. This report compares very favorably with that of the preceding semester and shows that the percentage of students in the school who fail to keep the pace set by the others is very low.

CORNHUSKER FANS MAY SEE GOOD GAME TODAY

TARKIO TEAM IN BETTER CONDI-TION THAN LOCAL PLAYERS.

TODAYS LINEUP IS STILL UNSETTLED

Outfielders Only Men Sure of Berths
and Other Three Departments
Are Perplexing Stiehm.

Nebraska University fans will have their first opportunity in two years of witnessing a varsity baseball game this afternoon when the Cornhuskers meet the Tarkio College team. The game will begin at 3:30 o'clock and admission will be 25 cents, or by season ticket.

Coach Stiehm was still undecided about his lineup last night, but the men from whom he will select his team today are, Pearson, Towle and Hart, catchers; Schmidt, Rodman or Schmra, pitchers; Underwood or Groves, first; Hartwell or Purdy, second; Florey or Hart, shortstop; Haskell or Lofgren, third, and Hyde, Ernie Frank and Oliver, outfield.

A Crack Outfield.

The outfield berths are practically clinched, as Hyde, Frank and Oliver are far better players than any of the other candidates for garden work. They are a fast and fairly hard hitting trio, all good fielders and all possessing good throwing arms. The rest of the positions are still considerably up in the air on account of the ineligibility of certain players and the plethora of material. Rodman and Schmidt seem sure of twirling jobs and Schmra is said by the players to have a lot of stuff. The backstopping problem would be considerably relieved if Buol's arm should "come back" or Pearson lift his ineligibility. Towle is a good little receiver, but light and he isn't the hitter that the others are. Buol's bad arm has forced him to stop strenuous work for a week and resort to osteopathic treatment. As he is an extremely heavy hitter, his absence is likely to be felt should the Cornhuskers encounter any mid-season pitching.

Carr's Loss Mourned.

With Underwood back at first the infield would assume a satisfactory aspect, although the hole left by the departure of Carr will not be entirely filled this season.

The Tarkio team is rated as one of the fastest college teams in this section and has games scheduled with a number of Missouri Valley aggregations. It has the advantage over the Cornhuskers of a good week's start in training, and this is likely to be felt, as condition is a pretty important factor at this early period of the season.
