A TERRIBLE BLOW.

The Nebraskan has received a horrible rebuke in the shape of a posted announcement which characterized the paper as a "fraternity and sorority advocate." It is to be regretted that the perpetrator has not seen fit to make an open accusation, or to state the reasons for his convictions.

We leave judgment to our readers; if such is the consensus of opinion we stand open to criticism.

Unfortunately we have not space to devote to mudslinging, but the incident would seem to justify a few observations. Every walk of life is infested with a certain insignificant body of persons who, under the guise of reformers, delight themselves by directing misplaced blows at existing institutions. They chortle at their own devices, and smile at the havoc which they imagine they are working.

It gives us great pleasure to serve as a whetstone for the wits of this minute body, and we would gladly receive any helpful suggestion that they can offer, although it has been our experience that they have none.

A FIELD WITHOUT A NAME.

Practically every portion of this University has been christened except the athletic field. Of course, this field is an infant in the family of additions; but it is one of growing importance; it has witnessed the defeat of Michigan, the bloody battle between sophomore and freshman classes, several track meets, competent and famous bonfires.

This historic spot is still hesitatingly designated as "Nebraska Field." Of course this name is highly appropriate, but it has never been definitely set. We feel that a name should be granted and will gladly receive suggestions, which we will publish from time to time to institute a campaign.

A Reliable Timepiece.

 He'd be without a peer;
 He hasn't lost a single tick
 For nigh on twenty year.

Y. M. C. A. MEETING A SUCCESS

University Delegation of Thirty Returns From Crete.

The University delegation of thirty men returned Sunday night from the annual student Y. M. C. A. conference held at Crete. Dean Charles Fordyce presided at the meeting, which was in the charge of State Student Secretary E. S. Turner. Addresses were given by prominent Y. M. C. A. men, including "Dad" Elliot and J. P. Bailey, of Omaha.

The conference was highly successful and gave the men a larger notion of university Y. M. C. A. work. Plans are now being formulated for next year by which the association activities will be extended.

DEAN BESSEY TO TALK.

He Will Speak to Men on "Oldest Church in the World."

Dean C. E. Bessey will speak at the Y. M. C. A. rooms on Thursday evening to a meeting of men from 6:50 till 7:30 o'clock. The subject of his talk will be "The Oldest Church in the World." The dean has seen this church, which is now standing in a small village in Armenia. He has studied it, and all those who know the dean and have heard him talk know that he will keep them interested the entire time. This meeting will be open to all University students and faculty.
